According to the new governance structure model, the Company must ensure that at least 20% of the Members of the BOD must be independent members and have an Audit Committee directly under the BOD. The Audit Committee must have a minimum of 2 members, in which the Chairman of the Audit Committee is an independent member of the BOD and the remaining members must be non-executive members of the BOD.

The BOD submits to the GMS for authorization to the BOD to:

- Organize the implementation of the Company's new governance structure model and operations after being approved by the GMS, ensuring compliance with legal regulations and the company's Charter;
- Establish the Audit Committee, issue the Operational Regulations of the Audit Committee, and appoint personnel as stipulated.

2. Proposal for dismissal of the Company's Supervisors

Pursuant to the proposal for changing the Company's governance model stated in section 1 of this Submission, the BOD respectfully submits to the GMS for approval the dismissal of all the Company's Supervisors, including the individuals listed below, from the date the GMS approves the change in the Company's governance structure model stated in this Submission:

No.	Full name	Position
1	Mr. Do Manh Hung	Head of Supervisory Board
2	Mr. Cao Viet Bach	Member of Supervisory Board
3	Mr. Nguyen Kien Giang	Member of Supervisory Board

3. Amendment and Supplementation of the Company Charter:

- The BOD respectfully submits to the GMS for approval the amendment of some articles of the Company Charter to be consistent with the Company's management structure after the change. The full text of the amended and supplemented Charter is attached to this Submission.

4. Amendment and Supplementation of the Internal Corporate Governance Regulations and the Operational Regulations of the Board of Directors:

- The BOD respectfully submits to the GMS for approval the amendment of some Articles of the Internal Corporate Governance Regulations and the Operational Regulations of the Board of Directors to be consistent with the management structure after changing the Company's governance model;
- The full text of the Internal Regulation on Corporate Governance and the Operating Regulation of the Board of Directors are attached to this Submission.

Within the scope of the amendments to the Charter, the Internal Regulation on Corporate Governance, and the Operating Regulation of the Board of Directors as approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders above, the General Meeting of Shareholders authorizes the Board of Directors to have full authority to decide on matters arising related to the registration of Charter amendments, the issuance of regulations, and information disclosure in accordance with the law.

Submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders for consideration and approval.

Sincerely,.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
CHAIRMAN af

 - f. Notify and send the notice of meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders to all shareholders entitled to attend;
 - g. Other tasks serving the meeting.

3. The notice of meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent to all shareholders by registered mail to the shareholder's contact address or by electronic means from the Company's email address to the shareholder's email address registered with the Securities Depository Center, and simultaneously disclosed on the company's website and the State Securities Commission, the Stock Exchange where the Company's shares are listed or registered for trading.
4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 3 of Article 11 of this Charter shall have the right to propose matters for inclusion in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must be in writing and must be sent to the Company no later than 03 working days before the date of the meeting commencement. The proposal must clearly state the shareholder's name, the number of shares of each class held by the shareholder, contact address, nationality, Citizen Identity Card number, Identity Card number, Passport or other valid personal identification for individual shareholders; name, enterprise code or establishment decision number, head office address for organizational shareholders; the number and class of shares held by that shareholder, and the matter proposed for inclusion in the meeting agenda.
5. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders shall have the right to refuse the proposal specified in Clause 4 of this Article if it falls into one of the following cases:
 - a. The proposal is not sent in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4 of this Article;
 - b. At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least 5% of the ordinary shares as stipulated in Clause 3 of Article 11 of this Charter;
 - c. The proposed matter is not within the scope of the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - d. Other cases as stipulated by law and this Charter.
6. The person convening the General Meeting of Shareholders must accept and include the proposal specified in Clause 4 of this Article in the proposed agenda and content of the meeting, except for the cases specified in Clause 5 of this Article; the proposal shall be officially added to the agenda and content of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 18. Conditions for holding the Shareholders' General Meeting

1. The Shareholders' General Meeting shall be held when the number of attending shareholders represents more than 50% of the total voting shares.
2. If the first meeting does not meet the conditions for holding as stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article, the notice for the second meeting shall be sent within 30 days from the date scheduled for the first meeting. The second Shareholders' General Meeting shall be held when the number of attending shareholders represents 33% or more of the total voting shares.
3. If the second meeting does not meet the conditions for holding as stipulated in Clause 2 of this Article, the notice for the third meeting must be sent within 20 days from the date scheduled for the second meeting. The third Shareholders' General Meeting shall be held regardless of the total number of voting shares of the attending shareholders.

Article 19. Procedures for holding and voting at the Shareholders' General Meeting

1. Before the meeting opens, the Company must conduct shareholder registration procedures and must continue registration until all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting who are present have registered in the following order:
 - a. When conducting shareholder registration, the Company shall issue to each shareholder or authorized representative entitled to vote a voting card/ballot, on which the registration number, full name of the shareholder, full name of the authorized representative, and the number of voting shares/ballots of that shareholder are recorded. The Shareholders' General Meeting shall discuss and vote on each item on the agenda. Voting shall be conducted by voting for approval, disapproval, and abstention. The vote counting results shall be announced by the Chair or the Vote Counting Committee immediately before the meeting closes. The General Meeting shall elect persons responsible for counting votes or supervising vote counting as proposed by the Chair. The number of members of the Vote Counting Committee shall be decided by the Shareholders' General Meeting based on the proposal of the meeting Chair;
 - b. Shareholders, authorized representatives of corporate shareholders, or authorized persons arriving after the meeting has opened are entitled to register immediately and thereafter are entitled to participate and vote/elect at the general meeting immediately after registration. The Chair is not responsible for pausing the general meeting to allow late-arriving shareholders to register, and the validity of matters already voted/elected on prior thereto shall not change.
2. The election of the Chair, Secretary, and Vote Counting Committee is stipulated as follows:
 - a. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall act as chair or authorize another member of the Board of Directors to act as chair of the Shareholders' General Meeting convened by the Board of Directors. If the Chairman is absent or temporarily incapacitated, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of them to act as chair of the meeting by majority rule. If a chair cannot be elected, the Chairman of the Audit Committee shall preside to allow the Shareholders' General Meeting to elect a chair from among the attendees, and the person with the highest number of votes shall act as chair of the meeting;
 - b. Except for the case stipulated in point a of this Clause, the person who signed the notice convening the Shareholders' General Meeting shall preside to allow the Shareholders' General Meeting to elect a chair of the meeting, and the person with the highest number of votes shall act as chair of the meeting;
 - c. The Chair shall appoint one or more persons to act as Secretary of the meeting;
 - d. The Shareholders' General Meeting shall elect one or more persons to the Vote Counting Committee upon the proposal of the meeting chair.
3. The agenda and content of the meeting must be approved by the Shareholders' General Meeting at the opening session. The agenda must clearly and specifically define the time for each item on the meeting agenda.
4. The Chairperson of the General Meeting has the right to implement necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda, and to reflect the wishes of the majority of attendees.
 - a. Arranging seating at the venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

- b. Ensuring safety for everyone present at the meeting venues;
 - c. Facilitating shareholders' attendance (or continued attendance) at the meeting. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders has full authority to change the aforementioned measures and apply all necessary measures. The applied measures may include issuing admission tickets or using other alternative forms.
5. The convener or the chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights:
- a. To require all attendees to undergo inspection or other lawful, reasonable security measures;
 - b. To request competent authorities to maintain order at the meeting; to expel from the General Meeting of Shareholders those who do not comply with the chairperson's authority, intentionally disrupt order, obstruct the normal progress of the meeting, or do not comply with security inspection requirements.
6. The Chairperson has the right to postpone the General Meeting of Shareholders when the required number of registered attendees is met, for a maximum of no more than 03 working days from the scheduled opening date of the meeting, and may only postpone the meeting or change the venue in the following cases:
- a. The meeting venue does not have enough convenient seating for all attendees;
 - b. Communication facilities at the meeting venue do not ensure that attending shareholders can participate, discuss, and vote;
 - c. There are attendees obstructing, disrupting order, posing a risk that the meeting cannot be conducted fairly and lawfully.
7. In case the chairperson postpones or suspends the General Meeting of Shareholders contrary to the provisions in Clause 6 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person from among the attendees to replace the chairperson and conduct the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions adopted at that meeting shall be effective.
8. In case the Company applies modern technology to organize the General Meeting of Shareholders through online meetings, the Company is responsible for ensuring that shareholders can attend and vote by electronic ballot or other electronic means in accordance with the provisions of Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises and Clause 3, Article 273 of Decree No. 155/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020 of the Government detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Law on Securities.

Article 20. Conditions for the adoption of Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Resolutions on the following matters shall be adopted if approved by shareholders representing 65% or more of the total voting shares of all attending shareholders, except for cases specified in Clauses 3, 4, and 6, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises:
- a. Types of shares and total number of shares of each type;
 - b. Changes in business lines, trades, and sectors;
 - c. Changes in the Company's management structure;
 - d. Investment projects or sale of assets with a value of 50% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent financial statement
 - e. Reorganization, dissolution of the Company;

- f. Amendments and additions to the Company's Charter.
- 2. Other resolutions shall be adopted when approved by shareholders holding over 50% of the total voting shares of all attending shareholders, except for cases specified in Clause 1 of this Article and Clauses 3, 4, and 6, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises;.
- 3. The voting for electing members of the Board of Directors must be conducted by cumulative voting, whereby each shareholder has a total number of voting shares corresponding to the total number of shares owned multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors, and the shareholder has the right to cumulate all or part of their total votes for one or more candidates. The successful candidate for membership of the Board of Directors or Supervisory Board shall be determined by the number of votes from highest to lowest, starting from the candidate with the highest number of votes until the number of members stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association is reached. In case two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the final member of the Board of Directors, a re-election shall be conducted among the candidates with equal votes or selection shall be made according to the criteria stipulated in the election regulations.
- 4. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders approved by 100% of the total voting shares are legal and effective even if the order and procedures for convening the meeting and approving such resolution violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 21. Authority and procedure for obtaining shareholder opinions in writing to approve Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The authority and procedure for obtaining shareholder opinions in writing to approve resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be carried out according to the following provisions:

- 1. The Board of Directors has the right to obtain shareholder opinions in writing to approve Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding the following matters:
 - a. Amending and supplementing the contents of the Company's Articles of Association;

The Company shall be responsible for disclosing information about the companies where the candidate currently holds the position of a member of the Board of Directors, other management titles, and the related interests of the candidate for the Board of Directors in the Company (if any).

2. A shareholder or group of shareholders owning 10% or more of the total ordinary shares shall have the right to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and the Company Charter. Shareholders holding ordinary shares shall have the right to pool their voting rights to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding from 10% to less than 20% of the total voting shares shall have the right to nominate one (01) candidate; from 20% to less than 30% shall be entitled to nominate a maximum of two (02) candidates; from 30% to less than 40% shall be entitled to nominate a maximum of three (03) candidates; from 40% to less than 50% shall be entitled to nominate a maximum of four (04) candidates; from 50% to less than 60% shall be entitled to nominate a maximum of five (05) candidates; from 60% to less than 70% shall be entitled to nominate a maximum of six (06) candidates; from 70% to less than 80% shall be entitled to nominate a maximum of seven (07) candidates; and from 80% to less than 90% shall be entitled to nominate a maximum of eight (08) candidates.
3. In case the number of candidates for the Board of Directors through nomination and self-nomination is still insufficient, the incumbent Board of Directors shall nominate additional candidates or organize nominations in accordance with the Company Charter, the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance, and the Operating Regulations of the Board of Directors. The nomination of additional candidates by the incumbent Board of Directors must be clearly announced before the General Meeting of Shareholders votes to elect members of the Board of Directors in accordance with the law.
4. Members of the Board of Directors must meet the standards and conditions stipulated in Clauses 1 and 2 of Article 155 of the Law on Enterprises and the Company Charter.

Article 25. Composition and term of office of members of the Board of Directors

1. The minimum number of members of the Board of Directors is 3 and the maximum is 7. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide the specific number of members of the Board of Directors from time to time.
2. The term of office for a member of the Board of Directors shall not exceed 05 years and they may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms. An individual may only be elected as an independent member of the Board of Directors of a company for no more than 02 consecutive terms. In case all members of the Board of Directors simultaneously conclude their term, those members shall continue to be members of the Board of Directors until new members are elected to replace them and take over the work.
3. The structure of the Board of Directors shall be as follows:
 - a. The structure of the Company's Board of Directors must ensure that at least 1/3 of the total number of members of the Board of Directors are non-executive members. The Company shall minimize the number of members of the Board of Directors who also hold executive titles in the Company to ensure the independence of the Board of Directors.
 - b. There shall be at least 01 independent member of the Board of Directors.

The rights, obligations, principles of organization, and coordination of activities of independent members of the Board of Directors are stipulated in the Operating Regulations of the Board of Directors.

 - r. Other rights and obligations as stipulated by the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, other legal provisions, and the Company Charter.
3. The Board of Directors must report the results of its operations to the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in Article 280 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020 of the Government detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Law on Securities.

Article 27. Remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits of members of the Board of Directors

- 1. The Company has the right to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors based on business results and efficiency.
- 2. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to work remuneration and bonuses. Work remuneration is calculated based on the number of necessary working days to complete the duties of the Board member and the daily remuneration rate. The Board of Directors estimates the remuneration level for each member based on the principle of unanimity. The total amount of remuneration and bonuses for the Board of Directors is decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.
- 3. The remuneration of each member of the Board of Directors shall be included in the Company's business expenses in accordance with the law on corporate income tax, shall be presented as a separate item in the Company's annual financial statements, and must be reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.
- 4. Members of the Board of Directors holding executive positions or members of the Board of Directors working in sub-committees of the Board of Directors or performing other tasks outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a Board member may be paid additional remuneration in the form of a lump-sum payment per instance, salary, commission, percentage of profit, or in other forms as decided by the Board of Directors.

5. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to reimbursement of all travel, accommodation, living expenses, and other reasonable expenses incurred by them while performing their responsibilities as Board members, including expenses arising from attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors, or sub-committees of the Board of Directors.
6. Members of the Board of Directors may be purchased liability insurance by the Company after obtaining approval from the General Meeting of Shareholders. This insurance does not cover the liabilities of Board members related to violations of law and the Company Charter.

Article 28. Chairman of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected, relieved from duty, or dismissed by the Board of Directors from among its members.
2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall not concurrently hold the position of General Director.
3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:
 - a. Prepare the program and plan of activities for the Board of Directors;
 - b. Prepare the agenda, content, and documents for meetings; convene, preside over, and chair meetings of the Board of Directors;
 - c. Organize the adoption of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;
 - d. Supervise the process of organizing the implementation of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;
 - e. Chair the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - f. Other rights and obligations as stipulated by the Law on Enterprises and this Charter.
4. In case the Chairman of the Board of Directors submits a letter of resignation or is relieved from duty or dismissed, the Board of Directors must elect a replacement within 10 days from the date of receiving the letter of resignation or being relieved from duty or dismissed.
5. In case the Chairman of the Board of Directors is absent or unable to perform his duties, he must authorize in writing another member to exercise the rights and obligations of the Chairman of the Board of Directors in accordance with the principles stipulated in the Company's Charter. In case there is no authorized person or the Chairman of the Board of Directors dies, is missing, is held in temporary detention, is serving a prison sentence, is serving an administrative penalty at a compulsory detoxification center, compulsory education institution, has fled from his place of residence, is restricted or has lost civil act capacity, has difficulty in cognition or controlling his behavior, or is prohibited by the Court from holding a position, practicing a profession, or doing certain work, the remaining members shall elect one person from among them to hold the position of Chairman of the Board of Directors based on the principle of majority approval of the remaining members until a new decision is made by the Board of Directors.

Article 29. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected at the first meeting of the Board of Directors within 07 working days from the date of the conclusion of the election of that Board of Directors. This meeting shall be convened and presided over by the member with the highest number of votes or the highest percentage of votes. In case there is more than one member with the highest and equal number of votes or percentage of votes, the members shall elect by majority principle to select 01 person from among them to convene the meeting of the Board of Directors.

2. The Board of Directors must meet at least once every quarter and may hold extraordinary meetings.
3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the Board of Directors in the following cases:
 - a. Upon proposal of the Audit Committee or an independent member of the Board of Directors;
 - b. Upon proposal of the General Director or at least 05 other managers;
 - c. Upon proposal of at least 02 members of the Board of Directors;
4. The proposal stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article must be made in writing, clearly stating the purpose, issues to be discussed and decided within the authority of the Board of Directors.
5. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the Board of Directors within 07 working days from the date of receiving the proposal stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors fails to convene the meeting of the Board of Directors as requested, he shall be responsible for any damages incurred by the Company; the proposing person shall have the right to replace the Chairman of the Board of Directors in convening the meeting of the Board of Directors.
6. The Chairman of the Board of Directors or the person convening the meeting of the Board of Directors must send a notice of meeting at least 01 working day before the meeting date. The notice of meeting must specify the time and place of the meeting, the agenda, the issues for discussion and decision. The notice of meeting must be accompanied by the documents to be used at the meeting and the voting slip of the members.

The notice of meeting of the Board of Directors may be sent by invitation letter, telephone, fax, electronic means, or other methods stipulated by the Company's Charter, ensuring it reaches the contact address of each member of the Board of Directors registered with the Company.

7. The Chairman of the Board of Directors or the convener shall send the notice of meeting and accompanying documents to the members of the Audit Committee in the same manner as to the members of the Board of Directors.
8. A meeting of the Board of Directors shall be conducted when at least 3/4 of the total number of members attend. If the meeting convened in accordance with this Clause does not have the required number of attending members, a second meeting shall be convened within 07 days from the date scheduled for the first meeting. In this case, the meeting shall be conducted if more than half of the members of the Board of Directors attend.
9. A member of the Board of Directors shall be deemed to have attended and voted at the meeting in the following cases:
 - a. Attending and voting directly at the meeting;
 - b. Authorizing another person to attend and vote at the meeting as stipulated in Clause 11 of this Article;
 - c. Attending and voting via online conference, electronic voting, or other electronic means;

- d. Sending the ballot to the meeting via mail, fax, or email.
10. In case of sending the ballot to the meeting via mail, the ballot must be placed in a sealed envelope and must be delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors no later than 01 hour before the opening. The ballot shall only be opened in the presence of all attendees.
 11. Voting
 - a. Except for the provision in point b, Clause 11, Article 29 of this Charter, each member of the Board of Directors or authorized person as stipulated in Clause 9 of this Article who is physically present in person at the Board of Directors meeting shall have one (01) vote;
 - b. A member of the Board of Directors shall not vote on contracts, transactions, or proposals in which that member or a person related to that member has an interest, and such interest conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company. A member of the Board of Directors shall not be counted towards the minimum quorum of members present required to hold a Board of Directors meeting regarding decisions on which that member is not entitled to vote;
 12. A member of the Board of Directors who directly or indirectly benefits from a contract or transaction that has been entered into or is planned to be entered into with the Company and knows that they have an interest therein is responsible for disclosing this interest at the first meeting of the Board discussing the execution of this contract or transaction. If a member of the Board of Directors does not know that they and related persons have an interest at the time the contract or transaction is signed with the Company, this member of the Board of Directors must disclose the relevant interests at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held after this member becomes aware that they have or will have an interest in the aforementioned transaction or contract.
 13. Members must fully attend the meetings of the Board of Directors. A member may authorize another person to attend and vote at the meeting if approved by the majority of the members of the Board of Directors.
 14. Resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors shall be adopted if approved by the majority of the attending members; in case of a tie vote, the final decision shall rest with the side supported by the opinion of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.
 15. The Board of Directors has the right to solicit opinions from members of the Board of Directors in writing to adopt a Resolution of the Board of Directors when approving matters within the authority of the Board of Directors as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 26 of this Charter.
 16. A resolution in the form of soliciting opinions in writing shall be adopted based on the affirmative opinions of the majority of the members of the Board of Directors who are entitled to vote. This resolution shall have the same effect and value as a resolution adopted at a meeting.
 17. A meeting of the Board of Directors may be held in the form of an online conference among members of the Board of Directors when all or some members are in different locations, provided that each participating member can:
 - a. Hear each other participating member of the Board of Directors speak during the meeting;
 - b. Speak to all other attending members simultaneously. Discussions among members may be conducted directly via telephone or other communication means, or a combination of these methods. A member of the Board of Directors participating in such a meeting shall be deemed to be “present” at that meeting. The location where the meeting is held in accordance with this provision is the location with the largest number of Board of Directors members present, or the location where the meeting Chairman is present.

Decisions adopted during meetings held and conducted validly via telephone shall take effect immediately upon the conclusion of the meeting but must be confirmed by the signatures on the minutes of all members of the Board of Directors attending such meeting.

18. The minutes of the Board of Directors meeting shall be prepared in Vietnamese and may be prepared in English. The minutes must be signed by the chairperson, all members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting, and the minute-taker. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall be responsible for sending the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting to the members, and such minutes shall be authentic evidence of the work conducted during the meeting.
