FINANCIAL STATEMENTS for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025

IV. APPLICABLE ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis for preparation of financial statements

Financial statements are made on the basis of accrual accounting (except for information related to cash flows).

2. Principles for recording amounts and cash equivalents

Money and cash equivalents including cash, bank deposits, money in transit, and short-term investments have a recovery or maturity period of no more than 3 months from the date of purchase, which is easily converted into a defined amount of money as well as there is not much risk in converting into money.

3. Accounting principles for financial investments

a) Investing in subsidiaries; joint venture and associate companies;

Investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures, associates, and capital contributions to other units shall be recorded at the original price. Interest, dividends and profits of periods before the purchased investment are accounted for the decrease in the value of that investment itself. Interest, dividends, and profits of periods after the investment is purchased are recorded as revenue.

When making financial statements, enterprises must determine the value of the lost investment in order to set aside provisions for investment losses.

4. Commercial receivables and other receivables

Commercial receivables and other receivables recorded according to actual arising documents are fully reasonable and valid.

Provisions for bad debts shall be made for each bad debt based on the overdue age of the debts or the expected level of possible losses as prescribed in Circular No. 48/2019/TT-BTC dated August 8, 2019 of the Ministry of Finance guiding the regime of setting up and using provisions for inventory price reduction, losses of financial investments and receivables.

5. Principles for recording inventory

Inventory is determined on the basis of cost price. The cost of inventory includes purchase costs, processing costs, and other directly related costs incurred to obtain inventory in its current location and state.

The original price of inventory is calculated according to the weighted average method and is accounted according to the regular declaration method.

Provisions for inventory depreciation are made at the end of the year when there is a decline in the net realizable value compared to the original price of inventory. The provision for inventory price reduction is calculated according to each type of supplies, goods and products in inventory according to the provisions of Circular No. 48/2019/TT-BTC dated August 08, 2019 of the Ministry of Finance guiding the regime of setting up and using provisions for inventory price reduction, losses of financial investments, etc receivables...

6. Principles of recognition and depreciation of fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are expressed at historical cost minus accumulated wear and tear. The historical cost of a Tangible Fixed Asset includes all costs incurred by the Company to acquire a Tangible Fixed Asset up to the time of putting it in a ready-to-use state. Expenses incurred after the initial recognition shall only be recorded as an increase in the historical cost of a tangible fixed asset if these expenses are certain to increase future economic benefits due to the use of such assets. Expenses that do not satisfy the above conditions shall be immediately recorded in the expenses.

When a Tangible Fixed Asset is sold or liquidated, the historical cost and accumulated depreciation are wiped out and any gains and losses incurred as a result of the liquidation are included in the income or expenses for the year.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated in a straight-line method based on estimated useful life. The number of depreciation years of tangible fixed assets is as follows:

Fixed Asset Types

Number of years

Machinery and equipment

7. Principles of upfront cost accounting

Tools and tools

Tools and instruments that have been put into use shall be allocated to the cost according to the straight-line method with an allocation period of not more than 2 years.

8. Principles of accounting for liabilities

Payables are tracked in detail according to the payable term, payables, payable currency and other factors according to the management needs of the enterprise.

9. Principles for recording expenses payable

Amounts payable for goods and services received from the seller or supplied to the buyer in the reporting period but actually unpaid due to the lack of invoices or insufficient accounting records and documents, and the expense of interest on loans payable shall be recorded in the production cost, business of the reporting period.

The accounting of payable expenses into production and business expenses in the period must comply with the principle of consistency between turnover and expenses incurred in the period. The actual expenses incurred must be settled with the pre-deducted payables, the difference will be refunded or further accounted into the expenses.

10. Principles for recognizing equity

Principles for recording the owner's contributed capital, surplus of share capital, setting up funds, dividends

Owner's investment capital

The owner's investment capital is recorded according to the actual amount invested by shareholders.

Undistributed profit

Record business results (profits and losses) after corporate income tax and the situation of profit distribution or loss handling of enterprises.

11. Principles and methods of revenue recognition

a) Sales revenue

Sales revenue is recognized when the following conditions are satisfied at the same time:

- The majority of the risks and benefits associated with ownership of the product or goods have been transferred to the buyer;
- The company no longer holds the right to manage the goods as the owner of the goods or the right to control the goods;
- Revenue is determined relatively certainly;
- The company has collected or will obtain economic benefits from the sale transaction;
- Determine costs related to sales transactions./.

b) Revenue from service provision

- Ability to derive economic benefits from such transaction;
- Revenue is determined relatively certainly./.

12. Accounting principles for the cost of goods sold.

SARA VIETNAM JOINT STOCK COMPANY

Address: Villa 35 BT5 Phap Van Tu Hiep Urban Area, Hoang Liet Ward, Hoang Mai District, Hanoi City.

The cost of goods sold in the year is recorded in accordance with the revenue generated in the period and ensures compliance with the prudential principle.

13. Accounting principles for selling expenses and business management expenses

Selling expenses reflect actual expenses incurred in the process of selling products, goods or providing services, including expenses for product offering, product introduction, product advertising, sales commissions, product and goods warranty expenses (except for construction and installation activities), the cost of preservation, packaging, transportation, etc.

Enterprise management expenses reflect the general management expenses of the enterprise, including expenses on salaries of employees of the enterprise management department (salaries, wages, allowances,...); social insurance, health insurance, trade union funding, unemployment insurance of enterprise managers; expenses for office materials, labor tools, depreciation of fixed assets used for enterprise management; land rent, license tax; provision for bad debts; outsourced services (electricity, water, telephone, fax, property insurance, fire and explosion...); other monetary expenses (reception, customer conferences, etc.).

14. Principles and methods of recording current corporate income tax expenses and deferred corporate income tax expenses

Corporate income tax expenses are the current income tax, which is calculated based on taxable income. The difference between taxable income and accounting profits is due to the adjustment of temporary differences between taxes and accounting, non-deductible expenses as well as adjustments for non-taxable income and forwarded losses.

The company is obliged to pay corporate income tax at the rate of 20%.

15. Financial assets

Financial Asset Classification

The company classifies financial assets into groups: financial assets recognized at fair value through the Statement of Business Results, investments held to maturity, loans and receivables, financial assets ready for sale. The classification of these financial assets depends on the nature and purpose of the financial assets and is decided at the time of initial recognition.

Financial assets are recognized at fair value through the Statement of Business Results

Financial assets are classified as recognized at fair value through the Statement of Business Results if they are held for business purposes or are classified as reflected at fair value through the Statement of Business Results at the time of initial recognition.

Investments held to maturity

Investments held to maturity are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or identifiable payments and have a fixed maturity that the Company intends and is likely to hold until the maturity date.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or identifiable payments and are not listed on the market.

Financial assets ready for sale

Ready-to-sell financial assets are non-derivative financial assets that are determined to be ready for sale or are not classified as financial assets recognized at fair value through the Statement of Results of Business, investments held to maturity or loans and receivables.

Initial book value of financial assets

Financial assets are recorded at the date of purchase and stop recorded at the date of sale. At the time of initial recognition, financial assets are determined according to the purchase price/issuance cost plus other expenses directly related to the purchase and issuance of such financial assets.

16. Financial liabilities

Financial instruments classified as financial liabilities or equity instruments at the time of initial recognition are consistent with the nature and definition of financial liabilities and equity instruments.

Financial liabilities

The company classifies financial liabilities into groups: financial liabilities are recorded at fair value through the Statement of Business Results, financial liabilities are determined according to the allocation value. The classification of financial debts depends on the nature and purpose of the financial debt and is decided at the time of initial recognition.

Financial liabilities are recognized at fair value through the Statement of Business Results

Financial liabilities are classified as recognized at fair value through the Statement of Business Results if they are held for business purposes or are classified as reflected at fair value through the Statement of Business Results at the time of initial recognition.

Financial liabilities are classified as securities held for business if:

- Issued or created primarily for the purpose of short-term acquisition;
- The company intends to hold for the purpose of short-term profit;
- Derivative financial instruments (except for derivative financial instruments that are defined as a financial guarantee contract or an effective hedging instrument).

Financial liabilities are determined according to the allocation value

Financial liabilities are determined according to the allocation value determined by the initial recognized value of financial liabilities minus principal repayments, plus or minus accumulated allocations calculated by the actual interest rate method of the difference between the original recognized value and the maturity value, deductions (either directly or through the use of a backup account) due to a decrease in value or due to irrevocable.

The effective interest rate method is a method of calculating the allocation value of one or a group of financial liabilities and allocating interest income or interest expense in the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the interest rate that discounts the estimated cash flows that will be paid or received in the future over the expected life of the financial instrument or, if necessary, a return to the net present book value of the financial liabilities.

Initial book value of financial liabilities

At the time of initial recognition, financial liabilities are determined according to the issuance price plus expenses directly related to the issuance of such financial debts.

Equity Instruments

Equity instrument is a contract that proves the remaining interests in the Company's assets after deducting all obligations.

17. Related Parties

Parties are considered involved if one party has the ability to control or have significant influence over the other in decision-making of financial and operational policies. The parties are also considered related parties if they are under common control or are under common significant influence.

In considering the relationship of stakeholders, the nature of the relationship is more focused than the legal form.

Transactions with relevant parties during the year are set out in Exhibit VII.2.
