Article 5. Business Scope and Operations

The Company is allowed to conduct business activities in the fields registered and amended with the business registration authority and publicly disclosed on the National Business Registration Portal. For conditional business lines, the Company must satisfy the conditions stipulated by the Investment Law and relevant sectoral laws.

IV. CHARTER CAPITAL, SHARES, AND FOUNDING SHAREHOLDERS

Article 6. Charter Capital, Shares, and Founding Shareholders

1. The charter capital of the Company is VND 10,000,000,000 (in words: Ten billion Vietnamese dong).
The total charter capital is divided into 1,000,000 shares, with a par value of VND 10,000 per share.
2. The Company may change its charter capital upon approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with applicable laws.
3. As of the date of adoption of this Charter, the Company's shares consist of common shares and preferred shares (if any). Rights and obligations of shareholders holding each type of share are specified in Articles 11 and 12 of this Charter.
4. The Company may issue other classes of preferred shares upon approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with the law.
5. Names, addresses, number of shares, and other information of founding shareholders as required by the Enterprise Law are listed in the attached appendix, which forms part of this Charter.
6. Common shares must be offered preferentially to existing shareholders in proportion to their ownership ratio, unless otherwise decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders. Unsubscribed shares shall be disposed of at the discretion of the Board of Directors. The Board may distribute such shares to existing shareholders and others, provided the conditions are no more favorable than those offered to existing shareholders, unless otherwise approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
7. The Company may repurchase its issued shares in accordance with the methods specified in this Charter and applicable laws.
8. The Company may issue other types of securities in accordance with the law.

Article 7. Share Certificates

1. Shareholders of the Company shall be issued share certificates corresponding to the number and type of shares owned.
2. A share certificate is a type of security confirming the legal rights and benefits of its holder over a portion of the share capital in the issuing organization. Share certificates must contain full information as stipulated in Clause 1, Article 121 of the Enterprise Law.
3. Within 30 days from the date of receipt of a complete application for share transfer in accordance with the Company's regulations or within 2 months from the date of full payment for the shares as per the Company's share issuance plan (or within another period as stated in the issuance terms), share certificates shall be issued. Shareholders are not required to pay any cost for printing the share certificates.
4. If a share certificate is lost, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, the shareholder may request a replacement. The request must include:
 - a) Information about the lost, damaged, or destroyed share certificate;
 - b) A commitment to take responsibility for any disputes arising from the issuance of the new certificate.

Article 8. Other Securities Certificates

Bond certificates or other securities certificates issued by the Company shall bear the signature of the legal representative and the seal of the Company.

Article 9. Share Transfer

1. All shares are freely transferable unless otherwise provided by this Charter or the law. Listed or registered shares on the Stock Exchange shall be transferred in accordance with the laws on securities and the securities market.
2. Shares that have not been fully paid may not be transferred or receive any benefits such as dividends, bonus shares, pre-emptive rights, or other shareholder entitlements.

Article 10. Share Repurchase (For Initial Company Registration Cases)

1. If a shareholder fails to fully and timely pay for subscribed shares, the Board of Directors shall issue a notice and may require payment of the outstanding amount. The shareholder is liable up to the total par value of the subscribed shares for any resulting financial obligations of the Company.
2. The payment notice shall clearly state the new payment deadline (at least 7 days from the date of notice), the payment location, and a statement that failure to comply will result in forfeiture of the unpaid shares.
3. The Board of Directors is entitled to recover any shares that are not fully and timely paid if the shareholder fails to fulfill the notice requirements.
4. Recovered shares shall be treated as authorized shares available for sale as per Clause 3, Article 112 of the Enterprise Law. The Board may sell or redistribute such shares under terms and conditions it deems appropriate.
5. Shareholders whose shares are recovered lose their shareholder status for those shares but remain liable for the financial obligations related to the subscribed value as of the date of recovery until full payment is completed. The Board has full authority to enforce recovery of the full share value at the time of repurchase.
6. A notice of share recovery shall be sent to the shareholder before the recovery date. The recovery remains effective even in the event of error or negligence in the delivery of such notice.

V. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE, MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL

Article 10. Organizational Structure, Management, and Control

The Company shall organize its management and operation under the model specified in point a, Clause 1, Article 127 of the Enterprise Law.

The management, governance, and control structure of the Company includes:

1. General Meeting of Shareholders
2. Board of Directors
3. Supervisory Board
4. General Director

VI. SHAREHOLDERS AND GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 11. Rights of Shareholders

1. Ordinary shareholders shall have the following rights:
 - a) Attend, speak at General Meetings of Shareholders, and vote either directly or via proxy or other means as stipulated by the Charter and laws. Each ordinary share shall entitle its holder to one vote;
 - b) Receive dividends at a rate decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - c) Have pre-emptive rights to purchase new shares in proportion to their current shareholding;

- d) Freely transfer their shares to others, except as restricted by Clause 3 Article 120, Clause 1 Article 127 of the Enterprise Law or other legal provisions;
 - e) Inspect, extract, and request correction of inaccurate information from the shareholder register containing names and contact details of voting shareholders;
 - f) Inspect, extract, or copy the Company Charter, General Meeting of Shareholders' minutes and resolutions;
 - g) Receive a portion of remaining assets upon the Company's dissolution or bankruptcy, corresponding to their ownership ratio;
 - h) Request the Company to repurchase shares under circumstances provided in Article 132 of the Enterprise Law;
 - i) Be treated equally—each share of the same type shall confer equal rights, obligations, and benefits. Where the Company has preference shares, their terms must be approved by the General Meeting and disclosed to shareholders;
 - k) Receive full periodic and extraordinary disclosures by the Company as required by law;
 - l) Have their legal rights and interests protected; request suspension or annulment of resolutions or decisions of the General Meeting or Board of Directors in accordance with the law;
 - m) Exercise other rights as prescribed by law and this Charter.
2. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding at least 5% of total ordinary shares shall have the following rights:
- a) Request the Board of Directors to convene a General Meeting as per Clause 3 Article 115 and Article 140 of the Enterprise Law;
 - b) Inspect and extract Board meeting minutes, resolutions, financial statements, Supervisory Board reports, and Board-approved contracts or transactions, except those involving trade or business secrets;
 - c) Request the Supervisory Board to investigate specific matters related to the Company's management if necessary. The written request must contain: full name, contact address, nationality, ID/enterprise number, number of shares held, and details of the matter to be investigated;
 - d) Propose matters to be added to the General Meeting agenda. Proposals must be submitted in writing no later than three (03) working days before the meeting and must specify the shareholder's name, share type and quantity, and the proposed matters;
 - e) Exercise other rights as per the law and this Charter.
3. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding at least 10% of total ordinary shares shall have the right to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Charter:
- a) Nominating shareholders must inform the group formation to other shareholders before the meeting begins;
 - b) Based on the number of Board and Supervisory members, shareholders or shareholder groups may nominate a number of candidates corresponding to their ownership percentage. If they nominate fewer candidates than entitled, the remaining candidates may be nominated by the Board, Supervisory Board, or other shareholders.

Article 12. Obligations of Shareholders

Ordinary shareholders shall have the following obligations:

- 1. Pay in full and on time for the subscribed shares;
- 2. Not withdraw contributed capital in any form unless their shares are bought back. If a shareholder illegally withdraws capital, they and any benefiting parties must jointly bear liabilities within the value of withdrawn shares and any resulting losses;

3. Comply with the Charter and internal management rules;
4. Abide by resolutions of the General Meeting and Board of Directors;
5. Keep confidential all information provided by the Company and use it only to protect their legal rights. Sharing or distributing such information is prohibited;
6. Attend General Meetings and vote by:
 - a) Attending and voting directly;
 - b) Authorizing another person to attend and vote;
 - c) Attending and voting online or electronically;
 - d) Sending votes via mail, fax, or email;
 - d) Sending votes by other means as defined in the Charter;
7. Be personally liable for the following actions conducted in the Company's name:
 - a) Legal violations;
 - b) Business or transactions for personal or third-party benefit;
 - c) Making early payments for debts amid financial risks to the Company;
8. Fulfill other obligations under applicable laws.

Article 13. General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders, comprising all voting shareholders, is the highest decision-making body of the Company. It must convene annually within four (04) months of the fiscal year-end. The Board may extend this, but not beyond six (06) months. Besides annual meetings, extraordinary meetings may be held. The meeting must take place within Vietnam at the chairperson's location.
2. The Board convenes the annual meeting and selects the venue. The annual meeting must approve audited financial statements. If the auditor's report contains material exceptions, adverse, or disclaimer opinions, the Company must invite the auditor's representative to the meeting.
3. The Board must convene an extraordinary meeting when:
 - a) It is deemed necessary for the Company's interest;
 - b) The number of Board or Supervisory Board members falls below the minimum required;
 - c) Requested by shareholders as defined in Clause 2 Article 115;
 - d) Requested by the Supervisory Board;
 - d) In other cases as required by law or this Charter.
4. Convening extraordinary meetings:
 - a) The Board must convene within 30 days of any of the events in Clause 3;
 - b) If the Board fails, the Supervisory Board must convene within the next 30 days;
 - c) If the Supervisory Board fails, qualifying shareholders may convene the meeting and may request the business registry to supervise. The Company shall reimburse all convening costs except shareholders' personal expenses;
 - d) Meeting procedures shall follow Clause 5 Article 140 of the Enterprise Law.

Article 14. Powers and Responsibilities of the General Meeting

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders has the following powers and responsibilities:
 - a) Approve the Company's development strategy;
 - b) Decide the types and total number of shares, and annual dividends per type;
 - c) Elect and remove Board and Supervisory members;
 - d) Approve investments or disposals equal to or exceeding 35% of the Company's total assets per the latest financial statements;
 - d) Amend and supplement the Charter;
 - e) Approve annual financial statements;

- g) Decide on repurchasing more than 10% of each type of issued shares;
 - h) Address violations by Board and Supervisory members that cause harm;
 - i) Decide on Company restructuring or dissolution;
 - k) Approve remuneration and benefits for the Board and Supervisory Board;
 - l) Approve internal governance rules and Board/Supervisory Board operating regulations;
 - m) Approve the list of approved audit firms and appoint auditors;
 - n) Exercise other rights as prescribed by law.
2. The General Meeting shall discuss and approve:
- a) The annual business plan;
 - b) Audited annual financial statements;
 - c) Reports from the Board and individual members;
 - d) Supervisory Board's report on business performance and management;
 - d) Self-evaluation report of Supervisory Board and its members;
 - e) Dividend levels per share type;
 - g) Number of Board and Supervisory members;
 - h) Election/removal of Board and Supervisory members;
 - i) Approve budget or remuneration levels for the Board and Supervisory Board;
 - k) Approve the list of approved audit firms and appoint or dismiss auditors if necessary;
 - l) Amend or supplement the Charter;
 - m) Decide the type and number of newly issued shares, and share transfers by founding shareholders within three years from incorporation;
 - n) Division, separation, merger, consolidation, or transformation of the Company;
 - o) Reorganization, liquidation, and appointment of liquidators;
 - p) Investments or asset disposals of 35% or more of total assets per the latest financial report;
 - q) Repurchase of more than 10% of issued shares per type;
 - r) Approve transactions with related parties as per Article 167 of the Enterprise Law valued at 35% or more of total assets;
 - s) Approve transactions as per Clause 4, Article 293 of Decree 155/2020/ND-CP on Securities Law implementation;
 - t) Approve internal corporate governance rules, Board and Supervisory Board operation rules;
 - u) Other matters as required by law or this Charter.
3. All resolutions and matters on the meeting agenda must be discussed and voted on at the General Meeting.

Article 15. Authorization to Attend the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Shareholders and authorized representatives of institutional shareholders may attend the meeting in person or authorize one or more individuals or organizations to attend on their behalf, or attend through one of the forms stipulated in Clause 3, Article 144 of the Enterprise Law.
2. Authorization to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders under Clause 1 of this Article must be made in writing. The power of attorney shall comply with civil law provisions and must specify: the name of the authorizing shareholder, the name of the authorized individual or organization, the number of shares being authorized, the scope and term of authorization, and the signatures of both the authorizing and authorized parties.
The authorized person must submit the written authorization when registering for the meeting. In case of sub-authorization, the attendee must also present the original authorization from the shareholder or their representative (if not previously registered with the Company).

3. The votes cast by an authorized person within the authorized scope shall remain valid in the following cases:

- a) The authorizing shareholder has died, lost or had restricted legal capacity;
- b) The authorization has been revoked;
- c) The authority of the authorized person has been revoked.

This clause shall not apply if the Company receives notice of any of the above events prior to the commencement of the General Meeting or its reconvening.

Article 16. Changes to Rights

1. Any change or revocation of special rights associated with preferred shares shall be valid when approved by shareholders representing at least 65% of the total voting rights of all attending shareholders.

Resolutions that adversely change the rights and obligations of holders of a specific class of preferred shares shall only be approved if:

- At least 75% of attending shareholders of that class approve, or
 - At least 75% of shareholders of that class approve in the case of written resolutions.
2. A meeting of preferred shareholders to vote on such changes shall only be valid if at least two shareholders (or their proxies) representing at least one-third of the par value of issued shares of that class are present. If quorum is not met, a reconvened meeting shall be held within 30 days, and any number of shareholders of that class present (in person or by proxy) shall be deemed sufficient.
At such meetings, shareholders may request a secret ballot. Each share shall carry equal voting rights.
 3. The procedures for these separate meetings shall follow Articles 18, 19, and 20 of this Charter.
 4. Unless otherwise specified in the share issuance terms, special rights attached to preferred shares related to the distribution of profits or assets shall not be affected by the issuance of additional shares of the same class.

Article 17. Convening, Agenda, and Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors shall convene annual and extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders. Extraordinary meetings shall be convened in cases stipulated in Clause 3, Article 13 of this Charter.
2. The person convening the meeting must carry out the following:
 - a) Prepare a list of shareholders eligible to attend and vote. This list must be created no more than 10 days before the meeting invitation is sent. The Company must announce the final registration date for attending the General Meeting at least 20 days in advance;
 - b) Prepare the agenda and meeting content;
 - c) Prepare meeting documents;
 - d) Draft the resolutions according to the expected meeting content;
 - d) Determine the time and venue of the meeting;
 - e) Send the meeting invitation to all eligible shareholders;
 - g) Handle other tasks for the meeting.

3. The invitation shall be sent in a way that ensures it reaches the shareholder's registered contact address. It shall also be published on the Company's website and with the State Securities Commission and the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed or registered.
The invitation must be sent to all shareholders on the eligibility list no later than 21 days before the meeting (counting from the date of dispatch).
The meeting agenda and documents related to voting matters must be sent to shareholders and/or published on the Company's website.
If the documents are not enclosed with the invitation, the notice must include a link where shareholders can access the full materials, including:
 - a) The meeting agenda and related documents;
 - b) List and details of candidates for election to the Board of Directors and Supervisory Board (if applicable);
 - c) Voting ballots;
 - d) Draft resolutions on each agenda item.
4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders as defined in Clause 2, Article 11 of this Charter have the right to propose additional agenda items. Such proposals must be made in writing and sent to the Company no later than 3 business days before the meeting date. The proposal must clearly state the shareholder's name, number and type of shares, and the proposed agenda item.
5. The person convening the meeting may reject a proposal under Clause 4 in the following cases:
 - a) The proposal does not comply with Clause 4 of this Article;
 - b) At the time of proposal, the shareholder(s) do not own at least 5% of ordinary shares as required;
 - c) The proposed matter is outside the authority of the General Meeting;
 - d) Other cases as prescribed by law or this Charter.
6. The convener must include qualifying proposals under Clause 4 in the tentative agenda unless rejected under Clause 5. The proposed matters shall be officially added if approved by the General Meeting.

Article 18. Conditions for Conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders (GMS) may be conducted when shareholders attending the meeting represent more than 50% of the total voting rights.
2. If the first meeting fails to meet the quorum under Clause 1, a second meeting shall be convened within 30 days from the intended date of the first meeting. The second GMS may proceed when shareholders present represent at least 33% of the total voting rights.
3. If the second meeting still fails to meet the quorum under Clause 2, a third meeting shall be convened within 20 days from the intended date of the second meeting. The third GMS may proceed regardless of the number of voting shares represented by attending shareholders.

Article 19. Order of Meeting and Voting Procedures at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Before the meeting begins, the Company must complete shareholder registration until all eligible shareholders present have been registered, following these steps:
 - a) Upon registration, each shareholder or authorized representative with voting rights shall be issued a voting card indicating registration number, full name, and number of votes.

The GMS shall discuss and vote on each matter in the agenda. Voting shall be conducted via approval, disapproval, and abstention. Votes approving resolutions are collected first, followed by disapprovals. The total votes are then counted, and results announced by the Chairperson before closing.

Vote counters and/or supervisors shall be elected by the GMS upon the Chairperson's proposal.

b) Shareholders or proxies arriving after the meeting has started may register and participate in voting immediately after registration. The Chairperson is not required to pause the meeting for late arrivals, and previous votes remain valid.

c) A shareholder is deemed present and voting if they:

- Attend and vote directly at the meeting;
 - Authorize another person to attend and vote;
 - Participate and vote via online conferencing, e-voting, or other electronic forms;
 - Submit voting ballots via mail, fax, or email.
2. Appointment of the Chairperson, Secretary, and Vote Counting Committee:
 - a) The Chairperson of the Board of Directors (BOD) shall chair the GMS, or may delegate another BOD member. If absent or temporarily unable to perform, the remaining BOD members shall elect a chairperson by majority vote. If no agreement is reached, the Head of the Supervisory Board shall organize a vote among attendees, and the candidate with the most votes shall preside.
 - b) If Clause a does not apply, the meeting convener shall organize the election of the Chairperson, who shall be the person with the most votes.
 - c) The Chairperson shall appoint one or more persons as the Secretary.
 - d) The GMS shall elect one or more members to the Vote Counting Committee based on the Chairperson's proposal.
 3. The agenda and content of the meeting must be approved at the opening session, specifying time allotments for each item.
 4. The Chairperson has the right to take necessary and reasonable measures to maintain order and follow the approved agenda in accordance with the majority's will, including:
 - a) Arranging seating;
 - b) Ensuring safety of all attendees;
 - c) Facilitating participation or continued participation.The convener may adjust such measures or apply additional ones, such as issuing entry cards or implementing alternative procedures.
 5. The GMS shall discuss and vote on each agenda item via approval, disapproval, or abstention. The Chairperson shall announce the result before closing.
 6. Late-arriving shareholders or proxies may still register and vote. Previous decisions remain valid.
 7. The meeting convener or Chairperson may:
 - a) Request participants undergo reasonable security checks;
 - b) Request authorities maintain order or expel attendees who disrupt or fail to follow instructions.
 8. The Chairperson may postpone a meeting with sufficient attendees for up to 3 business days from the planned date only in these cases:
 - a) Insufficient seating;
 - b) Inadequate communication systems;
 - c) Disorderly conduct that may compromise fairness and legality.
 9. If the Chairperson wrongfully postpones or suspends the meeting, the GMS shall elect a replacement from among attendees. All resolutions passed remain valid.

10. If the Company holds the GMS using modern technology (e.g., online meetings), it must ensure shareholders can attend and vote via e-voting or other electronic means in accordance with Article 144 of the Enterprise Law and Clause 3, Article 273 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP.

Article 20. Conditions for Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders to Be Passed

1. The following resolutions shall be passed if approved by shareholders representing at least 65% of the total voting rights of those attending and voting, except as provided in Clauses 3, 4, and 6 of Article 148 of the Enterprise Law:
 - a) Share classes and total number of each class;

 - q) Issue the BOD's Operational Regulations, Internal Corporate Governance Regulations (after GMS approval); issue Supervisory Board Regulations and Information Disclosure Regulations;
 - s) Exercise other powers and duties as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, other legal regulations, and the Charter.
3. The BOD must report its performance to the GMS in accordance with Article 280 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020, guiding the implementation of several provisions of the Law on Securities.

Article 27. Remuneration, Bonuses, and Other Benefits of Members of the Board of Directors

1. The Company is entitled to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors (BOD) based on business performance and results.
2. BOD members are entitled to work-based remuneration and bonuses. The work-based remuneration is calculated based on the number of days required to fulfill the duties and the daily rate. The BOD estimates the remuneration for each member on a unanimous basis. The total remuneration and bonuses for the BOD shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders (GMS) at its annual meeting.
3. The remuneration of each BOD member is accounted as part of the Company's business expenses in accordance with the law on corporate income tax. It must be presented as a separate item in the annual financial statements and reported to the GMS at its annual meeting.
4. A BOD member holding an executive position or participating in BOD subcommittees or performing duties beyond the usual responsibilities of a BOD member may be paid additional remuneration in the form of a one-time payment, salary, commission, profit percentage, or other form as determined by the BOD.
5. BOD members are entitled to reimbursement of all travel, accommodation, and other reasonable expenses incurred while performing their duties, including costs related to attending meetings of the GMS, BOD, or its subcommittees.
6. BOD members may be covered under a liability insurance policy purchased by the Company upon approval of the GMS. This insurance shall not cover liabilities arising from violations of the law or the Company's Charter.

Article 28. Chairperson of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairperson of the BOD is elected, dismissed, or removed by the BOD from among its members.
2. The Chairperson shall not concurrently serve as the General Director.
3. The Chairperson of the BOD has the following rights and responsibilities:

 - b) Prepare the agenda, contents, and materials for meetings; convene, preside over, and chair BOD meetings;
 - c) Organize the passing of resolutions and decisions of the BOD;

- d) Oversee the implementation of BOD resolutions and decisions;
 - d) Preside over GMS meetings;
 - e) Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.
4. In case the Chairperson resigns or is dismissed/removed, the BOD must elect a replacement within 10 working days from the date of resignation or dismissal/removal.
 5. If the Chairperson is absent or unable to perform duties, they must authorize another BOD member in writing to act on their behalf. If there is no authorized person, or the Chairperson has died, gone missing, is in custody, serving a prison sentence, undergoing mandatory rehabilitation or education, fled from residence, is restricted or incapable of civil acts, or prohibited from holding office or practicing certain professions, the remaining BOD members shall elect a replacement Chairperson by majority vote until a new decision is made by the BOD.

Article 29. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairperson is elected at the first meeting of the BOD within 7 working days from the conclusion of the BOD election. This meeting is convened and chaired by the member who received the highest number or highest percentage of votes. If more than one member received the highest equal number or percentage of votes, the BOD shall elect one among them by majority to convene the meeting.
2. The BOD must meet at least once per quarter and may hold extraordinary meetings.
3. The Chairperson of the BOD shall convene a meeting in the following cases:
 - a) Upon request of the Supervisory Board or an independent BOD member;
 - b) Upon request of the General Director or at least 5 other managers;
 - c) Upon request of at least 2 BOD members.
4. The request under Clause 3 must be made in writing, clearly stating the purpose, issues to be discussed, and the matters falling under BOD authority.
5. The Chairperson must convene a meeting within 7 working days from receiving the request. Failure to convene the meeting renders the Chairperson liable for any damages incurred, and the requesting parties may convene the meeting in lieu of the Chairperson.
6. The Chairperson or convener must send the invitation at least 3 working days before the meeting. The invitation must specify the meeting time, location, agenda, and discussion points, and include meeting materials and voting slips. Invitations may be sent via letter, telephone, fax, electronic means, or other methods as provided in the Charter and must reach the registered contact of each BOD member.
7. The Chairperson or convener must also send invitations and materials to members of the Supervisory Board as for BOD members. Supervisory Board members may attend and participate in discussions but may not vote.
8. A BOD meeting is valid when at least three-quarters of members attend. If this quorum is not met, a second meeting must be convened within 7 days. The second meeting is valid if over half of the BOD members attend.
9. A BOD member is deemed present and voting in the following cases:
 - a) Attending and voting in person;
 - b) Authorizing another person to attend and vote as per Clause 11;
 - c) Participating and voting via online meetings, electronic ballots, or other electronic forms;
 - d) Sending ballots via post, fax, or email;
 - d) Voting via other permitted methods.

10. For voting by post, ballots must be sealed and delivered to the Chairperson no later than 1 hour before the meeting starts. Ballots must only be opened in the presence of all attendees.
11. Members must attend all BOD meetings. Authorization to others for attendance and voting is allowed only with the majority approval of other BOD members.
12. A resolution or decision of the BOD is adopted when approved by the majority of attending members. In case of a tie, the Chairperson's vote shall prevail.

Article 30. Subcommittees under the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors (BOD) may establish subcommittees to oversee development policies, human resources, compensation, internal audit, and risk management. The number of members in each subcommittee shall be determined by the BOD but must be at least three (03), comprising members of the BOD and external members. Independent BOD members or non-executive BOD members should constitute the majority of the subcommittee, and one of these members shall be appointed as the Head of the subcommittee by the BOD. The operations of the subcommittees must comply with regulations issued by the BOD. A resolution of a subcommittee is valid only when a majority of its members attend and vote in favor at the meeting.
2. The implementation of decisions made by the BOD or its subcommittees must comply with the prevailing laws, the Company's Charter, and the Company's internal corporate governance regulations.

Article 31. Corporate Governance Officer

1. The Board of Directors must appoint at least one (01) Corporate Governance Officer to assist with corporate governance activities within the Company. This person may concurrently serve as the Company Secretary in accordance with Clause 5, Article 156 of the Law on Enterprises.
2. The Corporate Governance Officer must not simultaneously work for an approved auditing firm currently auditing the Company's financial statements.
3. The Corporate Governance Officer has the following rights and duties:
 - a) Advise the BOD on organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders (GMS) and on matters relating to communication between the Company and shareholders;
 - b) Prepare meetings of the BOD, the Supervisory Board, and the GMS as requested by the BOD or the Supervisory Board;
