Cash equivalents are short-term investments with maturities not exceeding 3 months, highly liquid, readily convertible to known amounts of cash, and subject to an insignificant risk of conversion into money.

2.5. Financial investments

Trading securities are recorded in the accounting books at cost, including: Purchase price plus purchase costs (if any) such as brokerage, transaction, information provision, taxes, fees and banking fees. The historical cost of trading securities is determined according to the fair value of the payments at the time the transaction occurs.

Held-to-maturity investments include: Bank deposits with term (including treasury bills, promissory notes), bonds, and preference shares that the issuer is required to buy back. At a certain point in the future, loans, ... are held to maturity for the purpose of earning periodical interest and other held-to-maturity investments.

The carrying amount of investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates is measured at cost.

The carrying amount of investments in equity instruments of another entity that does not have control, joint control or significant influence over the investee are measured at cost if a cash investment or revaluation price if it is an investment in a non-monetary asset.

Dividends received in shares are recorded only the number of shares received, not the increase in investment value and financial income.

Swap shares are valued at their fair value at the date of exchange. The fair value for shares of a listed company is the closing price listed on the stock market, for unlisted shares traded on UPCOM is the closing price on the UPCOM exchange, for unlisted shares traded on the UPCOM exchange. Other unlisted shares are the contract price or book value at the time of exchange.

Provision for devaluation of investments are made at year-end as follows:

Provision for loss of financial investments is made when the investee incurs a loss, except where such loss is already within the expectation of the Holding Company when making an investment decision. Provision for loss of financial investments are reversed when the investee subsequently generates a profit to offset previously made provision for losses. Provisions are reversed only to the extent that their carrying amount is not exceeded assuming no provisions have been recognised. The setting up of provisions for long-term financial investments is made in accordance with the guidance in Circular No. 48/2019/TT-BTC dated August 8, 2019, guiding the setting up and handling of provisions decrease in inventory prices, loss of investments, bad debts and warranties for products, goods, services and construction works at the enterprise.

2.6. Trade receivables

Receivables are presented in the financial statements at the carrying amount of trade and other receivables after setting off the allowances made for doubtful receivables.

Provision for bad debts is made for receivables that are overdue for six months or more, or receivables which the debtor is unable to pay due to liquidation, bankruptcy or other debts. similar difficulty.

2.7. Inventories

Inventories are stated at cost. Where net realizable value is lower than cost, inventories are recorded at net realizable value. Cost of inventory includes the cost of purchasing, processing and other directly attributable costs incurred to bring the inventory in its current location and condition.

The value of inventories is determined using the weighted average method.

Inventories are accounted for using the perpetual inventory method.

Method of determining the value of work in progress at the end of the period:

The cost of production in progress is collected according to the actual costs incurred for each type of unfinished product.

Provision for devaluation of inventories is made at year-end based on the difference between the cost of inventories and the net realizable value.

2.8. Fixed assets

Implement Circular 45/2013/TT-BTC dated April 25, 2013 of the Ministry of Finance and Circular 147/2016/TT-BTC amending a number of articles of Circular 45/2013/TT – BTC dated April 25 2013, guiding the management, use and depreciation of fixed assets. Tangible fixed assets, intangible fixed assets are recorded at cost. In the course of use, tangible fixed assets, intangible fixed assets are recorded at cost, accumulated amortization and carrying amount. Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis. The estimated amortization period is as follows:

- Buildings and structures	06 - 25 years
- Machinery and equipment	05 - 20 years
- Means of transportation	06 - 10 years
- Office equipment	03 - 08 years

2.9. Construction in progress

Construction in progress includes fixed assets under procurement and construction that have not been completed at the balance sheet date and are recorded at cost. This cost includes the cost of construction, installation of machinery and equipment and other direct costs. Work in progress is depreciated only when these assets are completed and put into use.

2.10. Prepaid expenses

Expenses incurred related to the results of production and business activities of many accounting periods are accounted into prepaid expenses to be gradually allocated to business results in the following accounting periods.

The calculation and allocation of long-term prepaid expenses to production and business expenses in each accounting period is based on the nature and extent of each type of expense to select a method and reasonable allocation criteria. Prepaid expenses are amortized to production and business expenses on a straight-line basis.

Business advantages arising from the equitization of state-owned enterprises are gradually amortized for no more than 3 years.

2.11. Liabilities

Liabilities are monitored according to the payable term, payables, types of currencies payable and other factors according to the management needs of the Company.

2.12. Accrual expenses

Accounts payable for goods and services received from sellers or provided to buyers in the reporting period but not yet paid are recorded into production and business expenses of the reporting period.

The recognition of payable expenses into production and business expenses in the period is done on the principle of matching between revenue and expenses incurred in the period. Expenses payable will be settled with the actual expenses incurred. The difference between the amount deducted and the actual cost is reversed.

2.13. Borrowing and financial lease obligations

The value of financial lease liabilities is the total payable amount calculated by the present value of the minimum rent payment or the fair value of the leased asset.

Loans and financial liabilities are monitored for each loan object, each loan agreement and the term of the borrowings and financial lease liabilities. In case of borrowings and debts in foreign currencies, detailed monitoring is performed in original currencies.

2.14. Borrowing expenses

Borrowing expenses are recognized in production and business expenses in the year when they are incurred, except for borrowing costs directly related to investment in construction or production of unfinished assets which are included in the value of assets. Such asset (capitalized) when all the conditions specified in Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 16 "Borrowing expenses" are met. In addition, for separate loans for the construction of fixed assets, investment real estate, interest is capitalized even if the construction period is less than 12 months.

2.15. Owner's equity

Owner's equity is stated at actually contributed capital of owners.

Equity surplus reflects the difference between the par value, direct costs related to the issuance of shares and the issue price (including the case of re-issuing treasury stocks) and may be the positive surplus (if the issue price is higher than the par value and the direct costs related to the issuance of shares) or negative surplus (if the issue price is lower than the par value and direct costs related to the issuance of shares).

Other capital under Owner's equity reflects the amount of business capital formed by the addition of business results or by donation, sponsorship, or revaluation of assets (if it is allowed to record an increase or decrease in investment capital of owner's property).

Undistributed profit after tax reflects the business results (profit and loss) after corporate income tax and the distribution of profits or handling of losses of the Company. Việc Profit distribution is made when the Company has undistributed after-tax profit not exceeding the undistributed after-tax profit in the Consolidated Financial Statements after excluding the effects of profits due to get from cheap purchase. In case of paying dividends, profits to owners in excess of undistributed after-tax profits are recorded as a decrease in contributed capital. Undistributed profit after tax may be distributed to investors based on the capital contribution ratio after being approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders/Board of Directors and after setting aside funds in accordance with the Company's Charter and provisions of Vietnamese law.

2.16. Revenue

Revenue from sales of goods

- Revenue from sale of goods should be recognised when all following conditions have been satisfied :
- The significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods have been transferred to the buyer;
- The Company retains neither continuing managerial involvement as a neither owner nor effective control over the goods sold;
- The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- The economic benefits associated with the transaction of goods sold have flown or will flow to the Company;
- Determine the costs associated with the sales transaction.

Revenue from rendering of services

- Revenue from rendering of services should be recognised when all the following conditions have been satisfied:
- The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- It is probable that economic benefits will flow from the transaction providing the service;
- The work completed at the balance sheet date can be determined;
- Determine the costs incurred for the transaction and the cost to complete the transaction providing that service.

The portion of service delivery completed is determined by the work completion method.

Construction contract revenue

- In case the construction contract stipulates that the contractor is paid according to the planned schedule, when the results of the construction contract performance can be estimated reliably, the revenue of the construction contract is recognized to the same extent corresponding to the completed work as determined by the Company on the date of the [separate] financial statements, regardless of whether the invoice has been paid according to the planned schedule or not and the amount stated on the invoice.
- In case the construction contract stipulates that the contractor is paid according to the value of the volume to be performed, when the results of the construction contract performance are reliably determined and confirmed by the customer, the revenue and expenses related to the contract is recognized in proportion to the completed work that is confirmed by the customer in the period reflected in the invoice.

Increases and decreases in contract performance, bonuses and other payments are only included in revenue when agreed with the customer.

- When the outcome of a construction contract cannot be estimated reliably, revenue is recognized only to the extent of contract costs incurred, for which reimbursement is reasonably certain. Contract costs are recognized as expenses only in the year when they are incurred.

Financial income

Revenue arising from interest, royalties, dividends, distributed profits and other financial income is recognized when the following two (2) conditions are satisfied simultaneously:

- It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to Company.
 - The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- Dividends and distributed profits are recognized when the Company is entitled to receive dividends or receive profits from capital contribution.

2.17. Cost of goods sold

Cost of goods sold reflects the cost value of products, goods, services sold in the period.

2.18. Financial expenses

Items recorded into financial expenses include:

- Expenses or losses relating to financial investment activities;
- Borrowing costs;
- Cost of short-term securities transfer losses, transaction costs of trade securities;
- Provision for devaluation of trading securities, provision for loss of investments in other entities, loss arising from the sale of foreign currencies, loss of exchange rates...

The above amounts are recognized according to the total amount incurred during the period, not offset against financial income.

2.19. Corporate income taxa) Deferred corporate income tax assets and Deferred income tax liabilities

The deferred tax asset is determined on the basis of the total deductible temporary difference and the amount carried forward to the next period of unused tax losses and tax incentives. Deferred income tax liabilities are determined on the basis of taxable temporary differences.

Deferred corporate income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are determined at the current CIT rate, based on tax rates and tax law in force at the balance sheet date.

b) Current income tax expense and Deferred income tax expense

Current income tax expense is determined based on taxable income in the year and income tax rate in the current year.

Deferred income tax expense is determined based on deductible temporary differences, the temporary taxable differences and income tax rate.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not offset.

2.20. Related parties

A party is considered related party when it has the ability to control or to exercise significant influence over other party in making financial and operating decisions. Related parties of a company include:

- Enterprises, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, that control the Company or are controlled by the Company, or are under common control with the Company, including parent companies, subsidiaries, and Associated Company;
- Individuals who directly or indirectly hold voting power of the Company that have significant influence over the Company, key management personnel of the Company, and close members of the families of these individuals.;
- Enterprises owned by the above individuals directly or indirectly hold a significant portion of the voting power or exert significant influence over the enterprise.
- In considering each related party relationship, attention should be paid to the nature of the relationship, not just its legal form.
