2. A share certificate is a certificate, book entry, or electronic data issued by the Company, confirming the ownership of one or several shares of the Company. Share certificates must contain all the contents prescribed in Clause 1, Article 121 of the Law on Enterprises.
3. Within 30 (thirty) days from the date of submitting a complete application for share transfer as prescribed by the Company or within 30 (thirty) days (or another period as stipulated in the issuance terms) from the date of full payment for the shares as prescribed in the Company's share certificate issuance plan, the share owner shall be issued share certificate. The share owner shall not pay the Company any costs for printing the share certificate.
4. In the event that share certificates are damaged, erased, lost, stolen, or destroyed, a shareholder may request the issuance of new share certificates, provided that they furnish proof of share ownership and pay all related costs to the Company. The shareholder's request must include the following information:
 - a. Information about the share certificates that have been lost, damaged, or destroyed in another way;

- b. A commitment to be responsible for any disputes arising from the re-issuance of new share certificates.

Article 8. Shareholder Register

1. The Company shall establish and maintain a shareholder register from the date of issuance of the Enterprise Registration Certificate. The shareholder register may be in writing, electronic data, or both.
2. The shareholder register must contain the following main contents:
 - a. Name and address of the Company's head office.
 - b. Total number of shares and types of shares offered for sale.
 - c. Total Number of shares sold and value of contributed share capital.
 - d. Full name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number of individual shareholders; name, enterprise code, or legal document number, and head office address of institutional shareholders.
 - e. Number of shares of each shareholder and share registration date.
3. The shareholder register is kept at the Company's head office or other organizations authorized to keep shareholder registers. Shareholders have the right to inspect, look up, or extract and copy the names and contact addresses of the Company's shareholders in the shareholder register.
4. In the event of a change in contact address, shareholders must promptly notify the Company to update the shareholder register. The Company is not responsible for failing to contact shareholders due to not being notified of changes in their addresses.
5. The Company must promptly update changes in shareholders in the shareholder register at the request of the relevant shareholders as prescribed in this Charter.

Article 9. Other Securities Certificates

Bond certificates or other securities certificates of the Company (excluding offering letters, temporary certificates, and similar documents) are issued with the signature of the Legal Representative and the Company's seal.

Article 10. Offering of Shares

1. The Board of Directors decides the time, method, and price for offering shares within the authorized offering amount. The offering price must not be lower than the market price at the time of sale or the book value of the Company at the nearest time, except in the following cases:

- a. Shares are sold to all shareholders in proportion to their existing shareholdings in the Company.
 - b. Shares are sold to brokers or underwriters. In this case, the specific discount amount or rate must be approved by shareholders representing at least 65% (sixty-five percent) of the total voting shares.
2. The conditions, methods, and procedures for offering shares comply with the provisions of law on securities.

Article 11. Transfer of Shares

1. All shares are freely transferable unless otherwise stipulated in this Charter and by law. The transfer of shares of strategic shareholders must comply with relevant legal regulations (if any). Shares listed and registered for trading on the Stock Exchange are transferred in accordance with the provisions of the law on securities and the securities market.
2. Shares that have not been fully paid cannot be transferred and do not enjoy related rights, such as the right to receive dividends, the right to receive shares issued to increase charter capital from equity, the right to purchase newly offered shares, and other rights as prescribed by law.
3. In the event of the death of an individual shareholder, the Company will recognize the following person as having the right to own part or all of the deceased person's shares:
 - a. A person with a document certifying the right of inheritance according to the provisions of law and currently holding the deceased person's share certificates.
 - b. The legal heir must register ownership of the inherited shares with the Company and become a new shareholder of the Company, enjoying all rights and performing the obligations of the shareholder they inherit, except for the right to inherit the position of Manager or Executive of the Company.

Article 12. Share revocation

1. In the event that a shareholder fails to fully and timely pay the amount for the registered shares, the Board of Directors will notify and has the right to request that shareholder to pay the remaining amount and be liable for the total par value of the registered shares for the Company's financial obligations arising from the incomplete payment. The above payment notice must clearly state the new payment deadline (at least 07 (seven) days from the date of sending the notice), the place of payment, and the notice must clearly state that in case of failure to pay as requested, the unpaid shares will be revoked.

2. Revoked shares are considered authorized offering shares as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 112 of the Law on Enterprises. The Board of Directors may directly or authorize the sale, redistribution, or settlement to the owner of the revoked shares or other entities under conditions and methods deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors.
3. Shareholders holding revoked shares must relinquish their shareholder status for those shares but are still liable for the total par value of the registered shares for the Company's financial obligations arising from the registration date until the revocation date as decided by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has full authority to decide on the enforcement of payment for the entire share value at the time of revocation.
4. The Board of Directors has the right to revoke shares that have not been fully and timely paid in the event that the requests in the notice mentioned in Clause 1 of this Article are not fulfilled.
5. The revocation notice is sent to the holder of the revocation shares before the revoked time. The revocation remains effective even in case of errors or negligence in sending the notice.

Article 13. Issuance and offering of share certificates and bonds; purchase of share certificates and bonds

Regulations on issuance and offering of share certificates and bonds; purchase of share certificates and bonds are implemented in accordance with the Company's Charter, the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, and other relevant legal regulations.

Article 14. Share repurchase at the request of shareholders

1. Shareholders who voted against the resolution on the Company's reorganization or changes to shareholder rights and obligations as stipulated in this Charter have the right to request the Company to repurchase their shares. The request must be in writing, clearly stating the shareholder's name, address, number of shares of each type, intended selling price, and reasons for requesting the Company to repurchase. The request must be sent to the Company within 10 (ten) working days from the date the General Meeting of Shareholders passes the resolution on the matters specified in this clause.
2. The Company must repurchase shares at the request of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article at market price within 90 (ninety) days from the date of receiving the request. In case of disagreement on the price, the parties may request a valuation organization to appraise the value. The company introduces at least three valuation organizations for shareholders to choose from, and that choice is final.

Article 15. Repurchase of Shares by the Company's decision

The Company has the right to repurchase no more than 30% (thirty percent) of the total outstanding common shares, a portion or all of the preferred dividend shares sold according to the following regulations:

1. The Board of Directors has the right to decide to repurchase a maximum of 10% (ten percent) of the total number of shares offered for sale within 12 (twelve) months. In other cases, the share repurchase is decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
2. The Board of Directors decides the share repurchase price. The repurchase price must not be higher than the market price at the time of repurchase, except for the cases specified in Clause 3 and Clause 4 of this Article.
3. The Company may repurchase part or all of the shares held by each shareholder. In this case, the Company's share repurchase decision must be notified by guaranteed means to all shareholders within 30 (thirty) days from the date the decision is approved. The notice must include the name and address of the Company's headquarters, the total number and type of shares to be repurchased, the repurchase price or the principle of valuation for repurchase, the payment procedures and deadlines, and the procedures and deadlines for shareholders to offer their shares for sale to the Company.
4. Shareholders who agree to resell shares must send their offer to sell shares by guaranteed means to the Company within the time limit specified in the share repurchase decision as stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article. The written agreement to sell shares must include the full name, contact address, and personal legal document number for individual shareholders; the name, enterprise code, or legal document number of the organization, and the address of the headquarters for institutional shareholders; the number of shares owned and the number of shares agreed to be sold; the payment method; and the signature of the shareholder or the shareholder's legal representative. The Company only repurchases shares offered for sale within the aforementioned period.

Article 16. Payment terms and handling of repurchased shares

1. The Company is only entitled to pay for repurchased shares to shareholders as prescribed in Article 15 and Article 16 of this Charter if, immediately after paying for all repurchased shares, the Company still ensures full payment of all debts and other asset obligations.
2. Shares repurchased as stipulated in Article 15 and Article 16 of this Charter are considered retrieved shares and belong to the number of shares offered for sale.
3. Share certificates confirming ownership of repurchased shares must be cancelled immediately after the corresponding shares have been fully paid. The Chairman and the General Director shall be jointly liable for damages caused by failure to cancel or delay in cancelling the share certificates.
4. After full payment for the repurchased shares, if the total value of assets recorded in the company's accounting books decreases by more than 10% (ten percent), the company must notify all creditors within 15 (fifteen) days from the date of full payment for the repurchased shares.

Article 17. Recovery of payment for repurchased shares

In the event that the payment for repurchased shares violates the provisions in Clause 1, Article 16 of this Charter or the payment of dividends violates the provisions of Article 135 of the Law on Enterprises, shareholders must return to the Company the amount of money and other assets received; in case the shareholder cannot return it to the company, that shareholder and all members of the Board of Directors shall be jointly liable for the Company's debts and other property obligations within the value of the money and assets paid to the shareholder that have not been returned.
