The Company's interim separate Quarter 4-2025 are prepared are prepared and presented in compliance with the requirements of Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the current Vietnamese Corporate Accounting System, and relevant legal regulations on the preparation and presentation of financial statements.

2.4 CURRENCY UNITS USED IN ACCOUNTING

The currency used in accounting is Vietnam Dong (VND) because revenues and expenditures are mainly made in VND currency.

3. PRIMARY ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following are important accounting policies applied by the Company in preparing this Quarter 4-2025 separate financial statements:

3.1 BASIS AND PURPOSE OF PREPARATION OF SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR QUARTER 4-2025

The separate financial statements for Quarter 4-2025 are the parent Company's standalone financial statements. These financial statements are prepared to meet disclosure requirements, specifically under Circular No. 96/2020/TT-BTC dated November 16th, 2020, by the Ministry of Finance on information disclosure in the securities market.

Simultaneously, the Company also prepares consolidated financial statements for Quarter 4-2025 for the Company and its subsidiary (as detailed in Note 5) for the three-month period ending December 31, 2025, in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Corporate Accounting System, and relevant legal regulations for preparing separate financial statements.

Users of these separate financial statements are advised to read them together with the consolidated financial statements to obtain comprehensive information about the consolidated financial position, consolidated operating results, and consolidated cash flows of the Company.

3.2 FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Circular No. 210/2009/TT-BTC dated November 6th, 2009, by the Ministry of Finance, guiding the application of International Accounting Standards on financial instruments presentation and disclosure, has not been applied by the Company in presenting these separate financial statements for the period.

3.3 ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Quarter 4-2025 financial statements complies with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, requiring the Board of Directors to make estimates and assumptions affecting reported amounts of liabilities, assets, and disclosures of contingent liabilities and assets at the reporting date, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the fiscal period. Actual operating results may differ from these estimates and assumptions.

3.4 FOREIGN CURRENCY

Notes to the interim separate financial statements for the three months ended December 31, 2025

Exchange rates for translating foreign currency transactions during the period are the transaction rates of the commercial bank with which the Company transacted at the time of the transaction.

Exchange rates for revaluation of monetary items denominated in foreign currencies at the reporting date are the rates published by the commercial bank where the foreign currency accounts are maintained:

- For monetary assets, the revaluation rate is the buying rate.
- For monetary liabilities, the revaluation rate is the selling rate.

3.5 CASH AND CASH EXCHANGEABLE

Cash reflects the total available funds of the enterprise at the reporting date, including cash on hand and demand deposits at banks. Cash and cash equivalents are reported in Vietnamese Dong (VND) in accordance with the Accounting Law No. 88/2015/QH13 dated November 20th, 2015, effective from January 1st, 2017.

3.6 FINANCIAL INVESTMENTS

Investments in Subsidiaries:

Investments are classified as investments in subsidiaries when the company has control over the investee. Control is the ability to govern the financial and operational policies of a business to derive economic benefits from its activities. An investment is deemed to provide control over the investee if the company holds more than 50% of ownership rights, unless such ownership does not equate to control. The company may also exercise control without holding over 50% ownership in the following scenarios:

- (i) Majority Voting Rights: The company holds more than 50% of the voting rights through agreements with other investors.
- (ii) Governance Authority: The company has the power to direct financial and operational policies through regulations or agreements.
- (iii) Board Composition Control: The company has the authority to appoint or dismiss the majority of the board members (or equivalent governing body).
- (iv) Voting Influence: The company has decisive voting power in board meetings or equivalent management forums.

The initial recognition of the investment in a Subsidiary acquired during the period is the date on which the Company achieves actual control over the invested entity. In the Company's separate financial statements, investments in Subsidiaries are presented at cost (purchase price and related direct purchase costs) less provision for investment losses. The investment loss provision is based on the value of accumulated losses on the subsidiary's financial statements and can be reversed when profitable. The increase or decrease in the provision for devaluation of financial investments is accounted for in financial expenses during the period.

Investments in Equity Instruments of Other Entities:

Investments in equity instruments of other entities refer to equity investments where the company does not have control, joint control, or significant influence over the investee.

Investments in equity instruments are initially recognized at cost, which includes: Purchase Price or capital contribution. Directly Attributable Costs related to the investment activity. For dividends and profits: Pre-acquisition dividends and profits reduce the carrying amount of the investment.

Post-acquisition dividends and profits are recognized as revenue.

Dividends received in the form of additional shares are tracked by the increase in the number of shares but are not recognized as an increase in the value of the investment. Provisions for impairment in equity investments are established at the time of preparing interim financial statements if the value of the investments has declined below their original cost. The provisioning methods are as follows:

Listed Equity Investments or Investments with a Reliable Fair Value: Provisions are made based on the market value of the shares.

Notes to the interim separate financial statements for the three months ended December 31, 2025

Unlisted Equity Investments with No Reliable Fair Value: Provisions are based on the difference between the company's actual capital contribution and the investee's net equity, multiplied by the company's percentage of total contributed capital in the investee.

Increases or decreases in the provision for impairment of investments in equity instruments, determined at the reporting date, are recognized in financial expenses.

3.7 RECEIVABLES

Receivables are presented at their carrying amount, net of allowance for doubtful accounts.

Classification of Receivables:

Trade Receivables: Reflect receivables of a commercial nature arising from purchase-sale transactions between the company and independent buyers.

Other Receivables: Reflect non-commercial receivables unrelated to purchase-sale transactions.

An allowance is made for overdue receivables (based on contracts or agreements) that the company has attempted to collect multiple times without success. The determination of overdue periods is based on the original payment terms, excluding any extensions agreed upon between the parties. An allowance is also made for receivables not yet due if the debtor is bankrupt, in the process of dissolution, missing, or has absconded. The provision is reversed upon collection. Increases or decreases in the allowance for doubtful accounts at the interim financial reporting date are recognized in administrative expenses.

3.8 TANGIBLES FIXED ASSETS

Tangible fixed assets are recognized at historical cost and are presented in the balance sheet under cost, accumulated depreciation, and net carrying value.

Recognition and Depreciation:

Recognition and depreciation of tangible fixed assets follow Vietnam Accounting Standard No. 03 and related circulars (Circular 200/2014/TT-BTC, Circular 45/2013/TT-BTC, Circular 147/2016/TT-BTC, and Circular 28/2017/TT-BTC).

Purchased Assets: Purchase price (net of trade discounts) + taxes + direct costs to bring the asset to a usable state.

Constructed Assets: Completed project cost + direct related costs + registration fees.

Self-Constructed Assets: Actual cost of construction + installation and trial costs.

Assets in use but awaiting final settlement are temporarily recorded at increased historical cost and depreciated; adjustments are made upon finalization.

Subsequent expenditures are added to the historical cost if they increase future economic benefits. Otherwise, they are expensed in the current period.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. Assets are categorized based on their nature and purpose in business activities.

Asset Type	Time of usage (Years)
Buildings, Structures	08 - 35

3.9 INTANGIBLE FIXED ASSETS

Recognition and Valuation: Intangible fixed assets are recorded at cost, as reflected in the balance sheet through original cost, accumulated depreciation, and net value. These assets are recognized and depreciated according to Vietnam Accounting Standard No. 04, Circulars No. 200/2014/TT-BTC, No. 45/2013/TT-BTC, and subsequent amendments.

Definition of Cost: Includes all expenses incurred until the asset is ready for use. Post-recognition costs are considered as period expenses unless they enhance the asset's economic benefits.

Disposal: When sold or liquidated, their original cost and accumulated depreciation are derecognized, and resulting gains or losses are included in the income statement.

Depreciation Policy: The company's intangible fixed assets (e.g., accounting software) are depreciated over three years.

3.10 LIABILITIES

Payables represent amounts owed to suppliers and other entities. Classification:

Trade Payables: Arise from commercial transactions for goods, services, or assets, including payables to parent and subsidiary companies.

Other Payables: Non-commercial payables unrelated to trade transactions.

Payables are detailed by party and due date and are not recorded below the obligation amount.

3.11 EXPENSES PAYABLE

Accrued expenses include wages, selling costs, and other costs incurred during the reporting period but unpaid due to the absence of invoices or supporting documents.

Accruals must be reasonably and reliably estimated and supported by evidence, ensuring alignment with actual expenses.

Equity Components:

Contributed Capital: Actual contributions by shareholders.

Share Premium: Surpluses from issuance reissuance of shares minus related costs.

Other Owner's Equity: Includes profits from operations, asset revaluation, or donations post-tax deductions.

Undistributed Post-Tax Profit: Includes retained earnings after corporate income tax, adjustments for prior errors, and retrospective policy changes.

Dividends are recognized as liabilities once approved by the General Assembly of Shareholders.

3.13 REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company's revenue includes revenue from leasing business premises.

Service Revenue:

Revenue from services is recognized when the transaction outcome is reliably measurable, considering:

At the closing date of the financial statements for the period of that period. The result of a service provision transaction is determined when all four (4) of the following conditions are satisfied:

- Revenue certainty.
- Economic benefits likelihood.
- Completion stage at the reporting date.
- Measurable costs incurred and to complete the transaction.

Financial Revenue:

Interest Income: Recognized per periodic bank notices or actual lending terms.

Dividends: Recorded upon entitlement to dividends. Stock dividends increase the number of shares but are not recognized in value.

3.14 TAXES AND OTHER PAYABLES TO THE STATE

Value Added Tax (VAT): Calculated per current laws.

Corporate Income Tax (CIT): Calculated on taxable income, adjusted for items excluded from taxation. The applicable CIT rate is 20%. Final amounts depend on tax authority inspections.

Other Taxes: Declared and paid per local tax regulations.
