IV. KEY ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis for Preparing Financial Statements

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost principle and in compliance with the Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Corporate Accounting Regime and other applicable regulations.

2. Accounting Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires Board of Directors to make estimates and assumptions that affect reports of liabilities, assets and disclosure of contingent liabilities and assets as of the financial statement date as well as reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the fiscal year. Actual business results may differ from these estimates.

3. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, bank deposits, cash in transit, savings deposits, deposits for guarantees and other short-term investments with a maturity of less than three months or investments with high liquidity. High liquidity is easy to turn them back into cash and low risk of value fluctuation.

4. Securities Investments

Securities investments are recorded at purchase date and initially measured at original price, including transaction-related costs.

Subsequently, they are stated at original price less impairment.

Provision for investment impairment is made in accordance with regulations of the Ministry of Finance.

5. Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of original price or net realizable value. The original price of inventories consists of the purchasing cost, processing cost and other directly-related costs incurred for having the inventories stored in the present place and conditions

Net realizable value means the estimated selling price of inventories in a normal production and business period minus the estimated cost for completing the products and the estimated selling cost. When necessary, provisions are made for obsolete, slow-moving and defective inventories in accordance with regulations issued by the Ministry of Finance.

6. Fixed Assets and Depreciation

Fixed assets are presented at original price and accumulated depreciation. Original price of fixed assets includes purchase price and any direct attributable costs to put the asset into the ready-for-use state.

Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life as per Circular 203/2009/TT-BTC and Circular 45/2013/TT-BTC issued by the Ministry of Finance, which is valid from 10 June 2023

Examples of useful lives for specific assets:

Vehicles: 8 years

Office equipment: 3-5 years

Fixed assets are depreciated using the straight-line method based on their estimated useful lives, in accordance with Circular No. 203/2009/TT-BTC dated October 20, 2009, and Circular No. 45/2013/TT-BTC dated April 25, 2013, issued by the Ministry of Finance, effective from June 10, 2013, regarding the management, utilization, and depreciation of fixed assets.

The estimated useful lives of specific fixed assets are as follows:

Fixed asset group	Useful life (Years)
Means of transport	08
Managerial equipment and instrument	03-05

7. Prepaid Expenses

Prepaid expenses which are only related to the production cost of one fiscal year or one business cycle are categorized as short-term and included in the production cost in that fiscal year.

Expenses that have been incurred during the fiscal year but relate to the business results over multiple accounting periods are recorded as long-term prepaid expenses and allocated to business results in the following accounting periods.

The calculation and allocation of long-term prepaid expenses into production costs for each accounting period are based on their nature and level of expense type to determine an appropriate allocation method and criteria. Prepaid expenses are gradually allocated to production costs using the straight-line method.

8. Accrued Expenses

Actual expenses that have not been incurred but are accrued in advance as production cost for that period to ensure that the actual arising expenses do not cause a sudden increase in production and business costs. This is based on the principle of matching revenue and expenses. When these expenses occur, if there is any discrepancy with the amount that has been accrued, the accountant will make an adjustment by either increasing or decreasing the expenses to match the difference.

9. Provisions

The recognized value of a provision for liabilities is the most reasonably estimated amount that will be required to settle the current debt obligation at the end of the fiscal year.

Only expenses related to the provision that was initially set up can be offset by that provision.

If the difference between the provision for liabilities established in the previous accounting period that has not been fully used is higher than the provision for liabilities established in that reporting period, these difference will be reversed and recorded as a reduction in production and business expenses for the period. Except for the excess difference of the warranty provision for construction work, which is reversed into other income in the period

10. Owner's Equity

Owner's equity is recognized based on the actual capital contributed by the owner.

Other equity from the owner is recorded based on the remaining value between the fair value of assets that the company receives as gifts or donations from other organizations or individuals, after deducting (-) any taxes payable (if any) related to these donated assets and any additional contributions from business operations.

The revaluation surplus reflected in the balance sheet is the difference arising from the revaluation of assets according to current government regulations. Retained earnings represent the profit from the company's activities after deducting (-) adjustments due to retrospective application of changes in accounting policies and retrospective adjustments for material errors in prior years.

11. Các nghiệp vụ bằng ngoại tệ Foreign Currency Transactions
