IV. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Accounting convention

All the Financial Statements are prepared on the accrual basis (except for the information related to cash flows).

2. Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in foreign currencies are converted at the actual exchange rates ruling as of the transaction dates. The ending balances of monetary items in foreign currencies are converted at the actual exchange rates ruling as of the balance sheet date.

Foreign exchange differences arisen from foreign currency transactions during the year shall be included into financial income or financial expenses. Foreign exchange differences due to the revaluation of ending balances of the monetary items in foreign currencies after offsetting their positive differences against negative differences shall be included into financial income or financial expenses.

The exchange rate used to convert foreign currency transactions is the actual exchange rate ruling as at the time of these transactions. The actual exchange rates applied to foreign currency transactions are as follows:

- For the foreign currency trading contract (including spot contract, forward contract, future contract, option contract, currency swap): the exchange rate stipulated in the contracts of trading foreign currency between the Company and the Bank
- For receivables: the buying rate ruling as at the time of transaction of the commercial bank where the Company designates the customers to make payments
- For payables: the selling rate ruling as at the time of transaction of the commercial bank where the Company supposes to make payments
- For acquisition of assets or immediate payments in foreign currency (not included into payable accounts): the buying rate of the commercial bank where the Company makes payments

The exchange rate used to convert foreign currency transactions is the actual exchange rate ruling as at the time of these transactions. The actual exchange rates applied to foreign currency transactions are as follows:

- For foreign currency deposits: the buying rate of the bank where the Company opens its foreign currency account
- For monetary items in foreign currencies classified as other assets: the buying rate of MBBank, Shinhan Bank Vietnam Limited where the Company frequently conducts transactions
- For monetary items in foreign currencies classified as payables: the selling rate of MBBank, Shinhan Bank Vietnam Limited where the Company frequently conducts transactions

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These Notes form an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the Financial Statements

---

3. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash includes cash on hand and demand deposits. Cash equivalents are short-term investments of which the due dates cannot exceed 3 months from the dates of the investments and the convertibility into cash is easy, and which do not have a lot of risks in the conversion into cash as of the balance sheet date.

4. Financial investments

Investments in subsidiaries, associates

Subsidiary is an entity that is controlled by the Company. Control is the Company's power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

An associate is an entity which the Company has significant influence but not the control to govern the financial and operating policies. Significant influence is the right to participate in making the associate's financial and operating policies but not control those policies.

Initial recognition

Investments in subsidiaries, associates are initially recognized at costs, including the cost of purchase or capital contributions plus other directly attributable transaction cost. In case of investment in non-monetary assets, the costs of the investment are recognized at the fair value of non-monetary assets at the arising time.

Dividends and profit of the periods prior to the purchase of investments are recorded as a decrease in value of such investments. Dividends and profit of the periods after the purchase of investments are recorded into the Company's revenue. Particularly, the dividends paid in form of shares are not recorded as an increase in value, but the increasing quantity is followed up.

Provision for impairment of investments in subsidiaries and associates

Provision for impairment of investments in subsidiaries, associates is made when the subsidiaries, associates suffer from losses at the rate equal to the difference between the actual capital contributed by parties in subsidiaries, associates and the actual owner's equity multiplying (x) the Company's rate of capital contribution over the total actual capital contributed by the parties in subsidiaries, associates. If the subsidiaries, associates are consolidated into Consolidated Financial Statements, the basis for impairment provision is the Consolidated Financial Statements.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These Notes form an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the Financial Statements

5. Receivables

Receivables are recognized at the carrying amounts less allowances for doubtful debts.

The classification of receivables as trade receivables and other receivables is made according the following principles:

- Trade receivables reflect receivables concerning the commercial nature arising from purchase and sale transactions between the Company and customers who are independent to the Company
- Other receivables reflect receivables not concerning the commercial nature and irrelevant to purchase and sale transactions

Allowance is made for each doubtful debt after being offset with payable liabilities (if any). The extraction rate is based on the debt age or the estimated loss as follows:

- As for outstanding debts:
  - 30% of the value of debts outstanding from over 6 months to under 1 year.
  - 50% of the value of debts outstanding from 1 year to under 2 years.
  - 70% of the value of debts outstanding from 2 years to under 3 years
  - 100% of the value of debts outstanding from over 3 years
- As for doubtful debts: Allowance is made on the basis of the estimated loss.

Increases/ (decreases) in the obligatory allowance for doubtful debts as of the balance sheet date are recorded into “General and administration expenses”

6. Inventories

Inventories are recognized at the lower of cost or net realizable value.

Costs of inventories are determined as follows:

- For materials and merchandises: Costs comprise costs of purchases and other directly relevant costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and conditions
- For work-in-process: Costs comprise main materials, labor and other directly relevant costs

Ex warehouse prices are determined in accordance with the weighted average method and recorded in line with the perpetual recording method.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price of inventories in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Allowance for inventories is recognized for each type of inventories when their costs are higher than their net realizable values. Increases/ (decreases) in the obligatory allowance for inventories as of the balance sheet date are recorded into “Costs of sales”.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These Notes form an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the Financial Statements

---

7. Prepaid expenses

Prepaid expenses comprise actual expenses arising and relevant to financial performance in several accounting periods. Prepaid expenses of the Company include expenses of tools, asset repair, insurance premiums, periodical vessel repair and maintenance, port and container yard maintenance. These prepaid expenses are allocated in the prepayment term or the term in which corresponding economic benefit is derived from these expenses:

Tools

Expenses of tools being put into use are allocated into expenses in accordance with the straight-line method for the maximum period of 36 months.

Expenses of fixed asset repair

Expenses of fixed asset repair arising once with high value are allocated into expenses in accordance with the straight-line method in 36 month.

Insurance premiums

Insurance premiums are allocated into expenses over the term specified in the insurance policy.

Expenses of periodical vessel repair and maintenance

Expenses of periodical vessel repair and maintenance arising once with high value are allocated into expenses in accordance with the straight-line method for the maximum period of 36 months.

Expenses of port and container yard maintenance

Expenses of port and container yard maintenance arising once with high value are allocated into expenses in accordance with the straight-line method in 24 months.

8. Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are determined by their historical costs less accumulated depreciation. Historical costs of tangible fixed assets include all the expenses paid by the Company to bring the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Other expenses arising subsequent to initial recognition are included into historical costs of fixed assets only if it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditure has resulted in future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of these assets. Those which do not meet the above conditions will be recorded into operation costs during the year.

When a tangible fixed asset is sold or disposed, its historical cost and accumulated depreciation are written off, then any gain or loss arising from such disposal is included in the income or the expenses during the year.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated in accordance with the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. The depreciation years applied are as follows:

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These Notes form an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the Financial Statements

Fixed assets	Years
Buildings and structures	08 – 10
Machinery and equipment	05 – 10
Vehicles	03 – 15
Office equipment	03 – 06
Other fixed assets	04 – 05

9. Finance lease fixed assets

A lease is classified as a finance lease if substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the asset are transferred to the lessee. Fixed assets under finance leases are presented at cost less accumulated depreciation. The cost of fixed assets under finance leases is the lower of the fair value of the leased asset at the commencement of the lease and the present value of the minimum lease payments. The discount rate used to calculate the present value of minimum lease payments is the implicit interest rate in the lease or the interest rate stated in the lease agreement. If the implicit interest rate in the lease cannot be determined, the borrowing interest rate at the commencement of the lease is used.

Fixed assets under finance leases are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. In cases where it is uncertain whether the Company will obtain ownership of the asset at the end of the lease term, the fixed asset is depreciated over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful life. The depreciation period for fixed assets under finance leases is 5 to 6 years.

10. Intangible fixed assets

Intangible fixed assets are determined by their initial costs less accumulated amortization.

Initial costs of intangible fixed assets include all the costs paid by the Company to bring the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Other costs relevant to intangible fixed assets arising subsequent to initial recognition are included into operation costs during the period only if these costs are associated with a specific intangible fixed asset and result in future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of these assets.

When an intangible fixed asset is sold or disposed, its initial costs and accumulated amortization are written off, then any gain or loss arising from such disposal is included in the income or the expenses during the year.

Intangible fixed asset of the Company includes Computer software. Purchase price of computer software, which is not a part associated with the relevant hardware, will be capitalized. Costs of computer software include all the expenses paid by the Company until the date the software is put into use. Computer software is amortized in accordance with the straight-line method in 2 years.

11. Construction-in-progress

Construction-in-progress reflects the expenses (including relevant loan interest expenses following the accounting policies of the Company) directly related to the construction of plants and the installation of machinery and equipment to serve for production, leasing, and management as well as the repair of fixed assets, which have not been completed yet. Assets in the progress of construction and installation are recorded at historical costs and not depreciated.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These Notes form an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the Financial Statements

---

12. Business Cooperation Contracts

Jointly Controlled Operations

The Company recognizes the following items related to business cooperation contracts in the form of jointly controlled operations in its financial statements:

- The value of assets owned by the Company;
- Liabilities incurred by the Company;
- Revenue shared from the sale of goods or services of the joint venture;
- Expenses incurred.

Profit-sharing with Fixed Returns in Business Cooperation Contracts

The Company's business cooperation contracts with partners, under which the Company acts as the recipient and monitors the capital contributed by partners, provide fixed returns to partners regardless of the business results of the contract. In such cases, although the legal form of the agreement is a business cooperation contract, its substance is a loan agreement. The Company recognizes this in the financial statements as follows:

- The entire revenue, expenses, and after-tax profit of the business cooperation activities are presented in the Company's statement of profit and loss;
- The capital contributions received from partners are recorded as borrowings;
- The fixed returns shared with partners (calculated based on the capital contribution, the contribution period, and the fixed interest rate) are recorded as finance expenses for the period.

13. Payables and accrued expenses

Payables and accrued expenses are recorded based on the amounts payable for goods and services already used. Accrued expenses are recorded based on reasonable estimates for the amounts payable.

The classification of payables as trade payables, accrued expenses and other payables is made on the basis of following principles:

- Trade payables reflect payables of commercial nature arising from the purchase of goods, services, or assets and the seller is an independent entity with the Company;
- Accrued expenses reflect expenses for goods, services received from suppliers or supplied to customers but have not been paid, invoiced or lack of accounting records and supporting documents; pay on leave payable to employees; and accrual of operation expenses;
- Other payables reflect payables of non-commercial nature and irrelevant to purchase, sales of goods or provisions of services.

Payables and accrued expenses are classified into short-term and long-term ones in the Balance Sheet based on the remaining terms as of the balance sheet date.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These Notes form an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the Financial Statements

---

14. Owner's equity

Capital is recorded according to the actual amounts contributed by the shareholders

15. Profit distribution

Profit after tax is distributed to the shareholders after appropriation for funds under the Charter of the Company as well as legal regulations and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The distribution of profits to the shareholders is made with consideration toward non-cash items in the retained earnings that may affect cash flows and payment of dividends such as profit due to revaluation of assets contributed as investment capital, profit due to revaluation of monetary items, financial instruments and other non-cash items.

Dividends are recorded as payables upon approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

16. Recognition of sales and income

Sales of providing services

Sales of providing services shall be recognized when all of the following conditions are satisfied:

- The amount of sales can be measured reliably. When the contract stipulates that the buyer is entitled to return the services provided under specific conditions, sales are recognized only when those specific conditions no longer exist and the buyer is not entitled to return the services provided;
- The Company received or shall probably receive the economic benefits associated with the provision of services;
- The stage of completion of the transaction at the end of reporting period can be measured reliably;
- The costs incurred for the transaction and the costs to complete the transaction can be measured reliably.

In the case that the services are provided in several accounting periods, the determination of sales is done on the basis of the stage of completion as of the balance sheet date.

Interest

Interest is recorded, based on the term and the actual interest rate applied in each particular period.

17. Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are interests and other costs that the Company directly incurs in connection with the borrowings. Borrowing costs are recorded as expenses when they are incurred.

18. Expenses

Expenses are those that result in outflows of the Company's economic benefits and are recorded at the time of transactions or when incurrence of the transaction is reliable regardless of whether payment for expenses is made or not.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These Notes form an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the Financial Statements

Expenses and their corresponding revenues are simultaneously recognized in accordance with matching principle. In the event that matching principle conflicts with prudence principle, expenses are recognized based on the nature and regulations of accounting standards in order to guarantee that transactions can be fairly and truly reflected.

19. Corporate income tax

Corporate income tax only includes current income tax, which is the tax amount computed based on the taxable income. Taxable income is different from accounting profit due to the adjustments of temporary differences between tax and accounting figures, non-deductible expenses as well as those of non-taxable income and losses brought forward.

20. Related parties

A party is considered a related party of the Company in case that party is able to control the Company or to cause material effects on the financial decisions as well as the operations of the Company. A party is also considered a related party of the Company in case that party is under the same control or is subject to the same material effects.

Considering the relationship of related parties, the nature of relationship is focused more than its legal form.

Value added tax (VAT)

The Company pays value-added tax (VAT) using the credit method. The applicable VAT rates are as follows:

- Internationally provided services	0%
- Other services	10%

Corporate income tax (CIT)

In 2014, the Company additionally invested in the terminal field and started to have taxable income. According to the regulations in Article 19 and Article 20, Circular No. 78/2014/TT-BTC dated 18 June 2014, for the income from this operation, the Company is exempted from CIT in 4 years (from 2014 to 2017) and benefits a reduction of 50% of tax payable in the next 9 years (from 2018 to 2026). Besides, the income from the terminal operation enjoys incentive tax rate of 10% in 15 years from 2014 to 2028.

The Company has to pay CIT for income from other activities at the rate of 20%.

The determination of corporate income tax payable of the Company is based on the prevailing regulations on taxes. However, these regulations change for each period and the regulations on taxes for various transactions can be explained in various ways. Therefore, the tax amount presented in the Financial Statements could change when being examined by the Tax Office.

Other taxes

The Company has declared and paid these taxes in line with the prevailing regulations.
