 - d. Other cases as prescribed by law.
4. Convening an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders
 - a. The Board of Directors must convene the meeting within sixty (60) days from the date the number of remaining Board members falls below the required level as specified in Point b, Clause 3 of this Article, or from the date of receipt of the request specified in Points c and d, Clause 3;
 - b. The Board of Directors must report the case where an independent member of the Board of Directors no longer meets the required standards and conditions at the nearest General Meeting of Shareholders or convene a meeting to elect a replacement within six (06) months from the date of receiving notice from such independent member.
 - c. If the Board of Directors fails to convene the meeting as required in Point a, Clause 4, within the following thirty (30) days, the shareholders or group of shareholders specified in Point c, Clause 3 shall have the right to request a representative of the Company to convene the meeting in accordance with the Law on Enterprises;
 - d. In this case, the shareholders or group of shareholders convening the meeting may request the business registration authority to supervise the procedures for convening, conducting the meeting and issuing resolutions. All reasonable expenses for convening and conducting the meeting shall be reimbursed by the Company, excluding personal expenses of shareholders such as accommodation and travel.
 - e. Procedures for organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders shall comply with Clause 5, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises.

Article 14. Rights and Obligations of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall have the following rights and obligations:
 - a. To approve the Company's development orientation;
 - b. To decide on types of shares and the total number of shares of each type to be offered; to determine annual dividend rates for each type of shares;
 - c. To elect, remove and dismiss members of the Board of Directors;
 - d. To decide on investment or sale of assets with a value of thirty-five percent (35%) or more of the total assets recorded in the latest financial statements of the Company;
 - e. To amend and supplement the Company's Charter;

- f. To approve annual financial statements;
 - g. To decide on the repurchase of more than ten percent (10%) of the total issued shares of each class;
 - h. To review and handle violations committed by members of the Board of Directors causing damage to the Company and its shareholders;
 - i. To decide on reorganization or dissolution of the Company;
 - j. To decide on the budget or total remuneration, bonuses and other benefits for the Board of Directors;
 - k. To approve, amend and supplement internal governance regulations and regulations on operation of the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee;
 - l. To approve the list of approved auditing firms; to appoint or dismiss the approved auditing firm when necessary;
 - m. Other rights and obligations as prescribed by law.
2. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and approve the following matters:
- a. Annual business plan of the Company;
 - b. Audited annual financial statements;
 - c. Reports of the Board of Directors on governance and operational performance of the Board and its members;
 - d. Reports of the Audit Committee;
 - e. Dividend levels for each class of shares;
 - f. Number of members of the Board of Directors;
 - g. Election, removal and dismissal of members of the Board of Directors;
 - h. Budget or total remuneration, bonuses and other benefits for the Board of Directors;

 - n. Investment or sale of assets with value equal to or exceeding thirty-five percent (35%) of total assets as recorded in the latest financial statements;
 - o. Repurchase of more than ten percent (10%) of total issued shares of each class;
 - p. Approval of contracts and transactions with related persons as prescribed in Clause 1, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises with value equal to or exceeding thirty-five percent (35%) of total assets;
 - q. Approval of transactions specified in Clause 4, Article 293 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020;
 - r. Approval of internal governance regulations and operation regulations of the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee;

- s. Other matters as prescribed by law and this Charter.
- 3. All resolutions and matters included in the meeting agenda must be discussed and voted on at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 15. Authorization to Attend the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A shareholder or an authorized representative of an institutional shareholder may attend the meeting in person or authorize one or more individuals or organizations to attend the meeting, or attend the meeting through any of the methods specified in Clause 3, Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises.
2. The authorization of an individual or organization to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article must be made in writing. The power of attorney shall be prepared in accordance with civil law and must clearly state the name of the authorizing shareholder, the name of the authorized individual or organization, the number of shares authorized, the content and scope of authorization, the duration of authorization, and signatures of both the authorizing party and the authorized party.

The authorized person must submit the power of attorney upon registration to attend the meeting.

3. Voting ballots/election ballots of the authorized attendee shall remain valid within the scope of authorization even in the following cases:

 - a. Arrange seating at the meeting venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - b. Ensure safety for all persons present at the meeting venues;
 - c. Facilitate shareholders' attendance (or continued attendance) at the meeting. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders has full authority to modify the above measures and apply all necessary measures, which may include issuing admission cards or using other selection methods.

5. The convener or the Chairperson of the General Meeting has the following rights:
 - a. To require all attendees to undergo inspection or other lawful and reasonable security measures;
 - b. To request competent authorities to maintain order at the meeting and to expel persons who do not comply with the Chairperson's authority, intentionally disrupt order, obstruct the normal progress of the meeting, or fail to comply with security inspection requirements.
6. The Chairperson has the right to postpone a General Meeting of Shareholders that has already met the required quorum for attendance for no more than 03 working days from the originally scheduled opening date, and may only postpone the meeting or change the venue in the following cases:
 - a. The meeting venue does not have sufficient seating for all attendees;
 - b. The communication facilities at the venue do not ensure that shareholders can participate, discuss, and vote;
 - c. There are attendees who obstruct or disrupt order, posing a risk that the meeting cannot be conducted fairly and lawfully.
7. In the event that the Chairperson postpones or suspends the meeting contrary to the provisions of Clause 6 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person from among the attendees to replace the Chairperson and conduct the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions adopted at such meeting shall remain valid and effective.
8. In cases where the Company applies modern technology to organize the General Meeting of Shareholders via online meeting, the Company is responsible for ensuring that shareholders can attend and vote through electronic voting or other electronic means in accordance with Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises and Clause 3, Article 273 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020 of the Government detailing the implementation of certain provisions of the Law on Securities.

Article 20. Conditions for Passing Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Resolutions on the following matters shall be passed if approved by shareholders representing 65% or more of the total voting votes of all attending shareholders, except for cases specified in Clauses 3, 4, and 6, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises:
 - a. Classes of shares and the total number of shares of each class;
 - b. Changes to business lines and sectors;
 - c. Changes to the Company's management organizational structure;
 - d. Investment projects or sale of assets valued at 35% or more of the total asset value as recorded in the Company's most recent financial statements.
 - e. Reorganization or dissolution of the Company;
 - f. Amendments and supplements to the Company's Charter.

2. Other resolutions shall be passed if approved by shareholders representing more than 50% of the total voting votes of all attending shareholders, except for cases specified in Clause 1 of this Article and Clauses 3, 4, and 6, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises.
3. Voting for the election of members of the Board of Directors shall be conducted by the cumulative voting method, whereby each shareholder has total votes equal to the number of shares owned multiplied by the number of members to be elected. Shareholders may allocate all or part of their votes to one or more candidates. Elected members shall be determined in descending order of votes received, starting from the candidate with the highest votes until the required number of members as stipulated in the Company's Charter is reached. In case two or more candidates receive equal votes for the last position, a re-election shall be conducted among those candidates or selection shall be made according to criteria set out in the election regulations.

Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders approved by 100% of the total voting shares shall be lawful and effective even if the procedures for convening the meeting and passing such resolutions do not comply with the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.

Article 21. Authority and Procedures for Obtaining Written Opinions of Shareholders

The authority and procedures for collecting shareholders' opinions in writing to pass resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be as follows:

1. The Board of Directors has the right to collect written opinions of shareholders on the following matters:
 - a. Amendments and supplements to the Company's Charter;
 - b. Approval/amendment of internal governance regulations, Board of Directors' operating regulations, and Audit Committee regulations;
 - c. Development orientation of the Company;
 - d. Classes of shares and total number of shares of each class;
 - e. Election, dismissal, or removal of members of the Board of Directors;
 - f. Investment projects or sale of assets valued at 35% or more of total assets as recorded in the most recent financial statements;
 - g. Changes to business lines and sectors;
 - h. Changes to management organizational structure;
 - i. Other matters deemed necessary for the Company's interests.
2. The Board of Directors must prepare voting forms, draft resolutions, and explanatory documents and send them to all voting shareholders at least 10 days before the deadline for returning voting forms.
3. A voting form must include the following main contents:
 - a. Company name, head office address, enterprise code;
 - b. Purpose of opinion collection;
 - c. Shareholder identification details and number of shares/votes;

- d. Matters to be voted on;
 - e. Voting options: agree, disagree, abstain;
 - f. Deadline for submission;
 - g. Name and signature of the Chairman of the Board.
4. Shareholders may submit voting forms by mail, fax, or email:
- 1. Mail submissions must be signed and sealed;
 - 2. Fax/email submissions must be kept confidential until counting;
 - 3. Late, opened, or disclosed votes are invalid; non-submitted votes are deemed non-participating.
5. The Board of Directors shall conduct the vote counting and prepare the vote-counting minutes under the supervision of the Audit Committee or of shareholders who do not hold managerial positions in the Company. The vote-counting minutes must include the following principal contents:
- a. The name, head office address, and enterprise registration number of the Company;
 - b. The purpose of the opinion collection and the matters to be voted on for passing the resolution;
 - c. The number of shareholders and the total number of voting votes/casting votes that participated in the voting/election, clearly specifying the number of valid and invalid votes and the method of submission, together with an appendix listing the shareholders participating in the voting/election;
 - d. The total number of votes in favor, against, and abstentions for each matter, and the total number of votes cast for each candidate (if any);
 - e. The matters approved and the corresponding voting ratios;
 - f. The full names and signatures of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the vote counters, and the vote supervisors.

Members of the Board of Directors, vote counters, and vote supervisors shall be jointly liable for the truthfulness and accuracy of the vote-counting minutes, and jointly responsible for any damages arising from resolutions passed based on dishonest or inaccurate vote counting.

- 6. The vote-counting minutes and resolutions must be sent to shareholders within 15 days from the completion of the vote counting. Such delivery may be replaced by publication on the Company's website within 24 hours from the completion of the vote counting.
- 7. Returned voting forms, vote-counting minutes, adopted resolutions, and all related documents attached to the voting forms must be retained at the Company's head office.
- 8. A resolution passed by collecting written opinions of shareholders shall be valid if approved by shareholders representing more than 50% of the total voting shares of all voting shareholders. Such resolution shall have the same legal validity as a resolution passed at a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 22. Resolutions and Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

- 1. Meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be recorded in minutes and may be audio-recorded or recorded and stored in other electronic forms. The minutes must be prepared in Vietnamese and may additionally be prepared in a foreign language, and must include the following principal contents:

- a. The name, head office address, and enterprise registration number of the Company;
 - b. The time and venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - c. The meeting agenda and contents;
 - d. The full names of the Chairperson and the Secretary;
 - e. A summary of the proceedings of the meeting and the opinions expressed at the General Meeting of Shareholders on each matter in the agenda;
 - f. The number of shareholders and the total number of voting votes of attending shareholders, together with an appendix listing registered shareholders and their representatives attending the meeting, including the number of shares and corresponding voting rights;
 - g. The total number of votes for each matter, specifying the voting method, total valid votes, invalid votes, votes in favor, votes against, and abstentions, and the corresponding percentages of the total voting votes of attending shareholders;
 - h. The total votes cast for each candidate (if any);
 - i. The matters approved and the corresponding voting ratios;
 - j. The full names and signatures of the Chairperson and the Secretary. In the event that the Chairperson or the Secretary refuses to sign the minutes, such minutes shall remain valid if signed by all other members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting and containing all required contents as prescribed in this Clause. The minutes must clearly state the refusal of the Chairperson and/or the Secretary to sign.
2. The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be completed and approved before the closing of the meeting. The Chairperson, the Secretary, and any other signatories of the minutes shall be jointly liable for the truthfulness and accuracy of the contents of the minutes.
 3. Minutes prepared in Vietnamese and in a foreign language shall have equal legal validity. In case of any discrepancy between the Vietnamese and the foreign language versions, the Vietnamese version shall prevail.
 4. Resolutions, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, appendices listing attending shareholders with their signatures, powers of attorney for attendance, all documents attached to the minutes (if any), and related documents enclosed with the meeting invitation must be retained at the Company's head office. Resolutions, minutes, and accompanying documents must be disclosed in accordance with laws on information disclosure in the securities market.

Article 23. Request for Cancellation of Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

Within 90 days from the date of receipt of a resolution, the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, or the vote-counting results of a written opinion collection, a shareholder or group of shareholders as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises has the right to request a Court or Arbitration to review and annul all or part of a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

1. The procedures for convening the meeting or passing resolutions seriously violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter, except as provided in Clause 4, Article 20 of this Charter.
2. The contents of the resolution violate the law or this Charter.

CHAPTER VII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 24. Nomination and candidacy for members of the Board of Directors

1. Where candidates for the Board of Directors have been identified, the Company must disclose information relating to such candidates at least ten (10) days prior to the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the Company's website, so that shareholders may review the candidates before voting. Candidates for the Board of Directors must provide a written commitment regarding the truthfulness and accuracy of their disclosed personal information and undertake to perform their duties honestly, prudently, and in the best interests of the Company if elected as members of the Board of Directors. Information to be disclosed about candidates includes:

- a. Full name, date of birth;
- b. Professional qualifications;
- c. Work experience;
- d. Other managerial positions (including positions on boards of other companies);
- e. Related interests with the Company and its related parties;
- f. Other information (if any) as stipulated in the Company's Charter;

The Company must also disclose information about companies in which the candidate holds positions as a member of the Board of Directors, other managerial positions, and any related interests of the candidate with the Company (if any).

2. Shareholders or groups of shareholders holding 10% or more of the total ordinary shares have the right to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter. Shareholders holding ordinary shares may aggregate their voting rights to nominate candidates. Shareholders or groups of shareholders holding from 10% to less than 20% of total voting shares may nominate one (01) candidate; from 20% to less than 30% may nominate up to two (02) candidates; from 30% to less than 40% may nominate up to three (03) candidates; from 40% to less than 50% may nominate up to four (04) candidates; from 50% to less than 60% may nominate up to five (05) candidates; from 60% to less than 70% may nominate up to six (06) candidates; from 70% to less than 80% may nominate up to seven (07) candidates; and from 80% to less than 90% may nominate up to eight (08) candidates.
3. Where the number of candidates nominated or self-nominated is insufficient, the incumbent Board of Directors may introduce additional candidates or organize nominations in accordance with the Company's Charter, internal corporate governance regulations, and the operating regulations of the Board of Directors. The introduction of additional candidates by the incumbent Board of Directors must be clearly disclosed before the General Meeting of Shareholders conducts the election in accordance with the law.

4. Members of the Board of Directors must satisfy the standards and conditions stipulated in Clauses 1 and 2, Article 155 of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.

Article 25. Composition and Term of Office of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors shall consist of four (04) members.
2. The term of office of a member of the Board of Directors shall not exceed five (05) years and members may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms. An individual may serve as an independent member of the Board of Directors of a company for no more than two (02) consecutive terms. Where all members of the Board of Directors simultaneously end their term, they shall continue to act as members until new members are elected to replace them and assume their duties.
3. The structure of the Board of Directors shall be as follows:
 - a. The composition of the Board of Directors must ensure that at least one-third (1/3) of the total members are non-executive members. The Company shall minimize the number of Board members concurrently holding executive positions in order to ensure the independence of the Board of Directors;
 - b. There must be at least one (01) independent member of the Board of Directors.
The rights, obligations, principles of organization, and coordination of activities of independent Board members shall be specified in the Operating Regulations of the Board of Directors.
4. A member of the Board of Directors shall cease to hold office if dismissed, removed, or replaced by the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Article 160 of the Law on Enterprises.
5. The appointment of members of the Board of Directors must be disclosed in accordance with the laws on information disclosure in the securities market.
6. A member of the Board of Directors is not required to be a shareholder of the Company.

Article 26. Rights and obligations of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Company, having full authority on behalf of the Company to decide and exercise the rights and obligations of the Company, except for those falling within the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
2. The rights and obligations of the Board of Directors are prescribed by law, the Company's Charter, and the General Meeting of Shareholders. Specifically, the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:
 - a. To decide on the Company's strategy, medium-term development plans, and annual business plans;
 - b. To propose the types of shares and the total number of shares authorized to be offered for each type;
 - c. To decide on the sale of unsold shares within the scope of authorized shares of each type and to decide on raising additional capital by other means;
 - d. To decide on the selling price of shares and bonds of the Company;
 - e. To decide on share repurchase in accordance with Clauses 1 and 2, Article 133 of the Law on Enterprises;

- f. To decide on investment plans and projects within its authority and limits as prescribed by law;
 - g. To decide on solutions for market development, marketing, and technology;
 - h. To approve contracts for purchase, sale, borrowing, lending, and other transactions with a value of 35% or more of the total assets recorded in the most recent financial statements of the Company, except for contracts and transactions under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed by law;
 - i.
 - Elect, dismiss, and remove the Chairman of the Board of Directors,
 - Appoint, dismiss, sign contracts with, and terminate contracts with the General Director, Deputy General Directors, Chief Accountant, and other key executives; decide on their salaries, remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits;
 - Appoint authorized representatives to participate in the Board of Directors, Members' Council, or General Meeting of Shareholders of other companies, and decide on their remuneration and other benefits;
 - j. To supervise and direct the General Director and other managers in the daily operation of the Company's business;
 - k. To decide on the organizational structure, internal management regulations, establishment of subsidiaries, branches, representative offices, and capital contributions or share acquisitions in other enterprises;
 - l. To approve the agenda and materials for meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, convene such meetings, or collect opinions for the General Meeting of Shareholders to pass resolutions;
 - m. To submit audited annual financial statements to the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - n. To propose dividend levels; decide on the time and procedures for dividend payment or handling of business losses;
 - o. To propose the reorganization, dissolution, or request for bankruptcy of the Company;
 - p. To issue the Board of Directors' operating regulations, internal corporate governance regulations (after approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders), regulations of the Audit Committee (if any), and regulations on information disclosure;
 - q. To request the General Director, Deputy General Directors, and other managers to provide information and documents on the financial status and business operations of the Company and its units.
 - r. Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, other applicable laws, and the Company's Charter.
3. The Board of Directors must report to the General Meeting of Shareholders on its performance in accordance with Article 280 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020 of the Government detailing the implementation of certain provisions of the Law on Securities.

Article 27. Remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits of members of the Board of Directors

1. The Company may pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors based on business performance and results.
2. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to remuneration and bonuses. Remuneration is calculated based on the number of working days required to fulfill duties and the daily remuneration rate. The Board of Directors determines remuneration for each member on the principle of consensus. The total remuneration and bonuses of the Board of Directors shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.
3. Remuneration of each Board member shall be recorded as a business expense in accordance with corporate income tax regulations, presented as a separate item in the Company's annual financial statements, and reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.
4. Members of the Board of Directors holding executive positions, serving on Board committees, or performing tasks beyond their normal duties may receive additional remuneration in the form of lump-sum payments, salary, commission, profit percentage, or other forms as decided by the Board of Directors.
5. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to reimbursement of all travel, accommodation, and other reasonable expenses incurred in performing their duties, including attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors, or its committees.
6. Members of the Board of Directors may be covered by liability insurance purchased by the Company with approval from the General Meeting of Shareholders. This insurance does not cover liabilities arising from violations of law or the Company's Charter.

Article 28. Chairman of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected, dismissed, or removed by the Board of Directors from among its members.
2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must not concurrently hold the position of General Director.
3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:
 - a. To formulate programs and plans for the activities of the Board of Directors;
 - b. To prepare agendas, contents, and documents for meetings; to convene, preside over, and chair meetings of the Board of Directors;
 - c. To organize the adoption of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;
 - d. To supervise the implementation of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;
 - e. To chair meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - f. Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises and this Charter.
4. In the event that the Chairman of the Board of Directors resigns or is dismissed or removed, the Board of Directors must elect a replacement within ten (10) days from the date of receipt of the resignation or the dismissal/removal decision.

5. In the event that the Chairman of the Board of Directors is absent or unable to perform their duties, they must authorize in writing another member to exercise the rights and obligations of the Chairman in accordance with the Company's Charter. If no such authorization is made, or if the Chairman dies, is missing, is detained, is serving a prison sentence, is subject to compulsory administrative measures, absconds, has limited or lost legal capacity, has difficulties in cognition or behavioral control, or is prohibited by the Court from holding positions or practicing certain professions, the remaining members shall elect one among them as Chairman of the Board of Directors by majority vote until a new decision of the Board of Directors is issued.

Article 29. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected at the first meeting of the Board of Directors within seven (07) working days from the completion of the election of the Board. This meeting shall be convened and chaired by the member with the highest number or highest percentage of votes. If there is more than one member with equal highest votes or vote percentage, the members shall elect one among them by majority to convene the meeting.
2. The Board of Directors must meet at least once every quarter and may hold extraordinary meetings.
3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the Board in the following cases:
 - a. At the request of an independent member of the Board of Directors;
 - b. At the request of the General Director or at least five (05) other managers;
 - c. At the request of at least two (02) members of the Board of Directors;
4. Requests specified in Clause 3 must be made in writing, clearly stating the purpose, matters to be discussed, and decisions falling within the authority of the Board of Directors.
5. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must convene a meeting within seven (07) working days from the date of receiving such request. If the Chairman fails to convene the meeting, they shall be liable for any damages caused to the Company; the requesting party may convene the meeting in place of the Chairman.
6. The Chairman or the person convening the meeting must send a notice of invitation at least one (01) working day prior to the meeting date. The notice must specify the time, venue, agenda, matters for discussion and decision, and must be accompanied by relevant documents and voting forms. The notice may be sent by invitation letter, telephone, fax, electronic means, or other methods as prescribed in the Company's Charter, ensuring delivery to the registered contact address of each Board member.
7. A meeting of the Board of Directors shall be conducted when at least three-quarters (3/4) of the total members are present. If the first meeting does not meet the quorum, a second meeting shall be convened within seven (07) days from the originally scheduled date. In such case, the meeting shall proceed if more than half of the Board members attend.
8. A Board member shall be deemed present and voting at the meeting in the following cases:
 - a. Attending and voting in person;

- b. Authorizing another person to attend and vote in accordance with Clause 11 of this Article;
 - c. Attending and voting via online conference, electronic voting, or other electronic means;
 - d. Sending voting ballots to the meeting by mail, fax, or email.
9. In case of sending voting ballots by mail, the ballot must be sealed and delivered to the Chairman no later than one (01) hour before the meeting opens. Ballots shall be opened in the presence of all attending participants.
10. Voting
- a. Except as provided in Point b, Clause 11 of Article 29, each Board member or authorized representative present at the meeting in person shall have one (01) vote;
 - b. A Board member shall not vote on contracts, transactions, or proposals in which they or their related persons have interests that conflict or may conflict with the interests of the Company. Such member shall not be counted toward the quorum for decisions on matters in which they are not entitled to vote;
11. A Board member who directly or indirectly benefits from a contract or transaction entered into or proposed to be entered into with the Company, and is aware of such interest, must disclose such interest at the first meeting of the Board discussing the contract or transaction. If the member was unaware at the time the contract was entered into, disclosure must be made at the first Board meeting after becoming aware of such interest.
12. Board members must attend all meetings. A member may authorize another person to attend and vote if approved by a majority of Board members.
13. Resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors shall be adopted if approved by a majority of attending members. In case of a tie, the final decision shall follow the opinion of the Chairman of the Board.
14. The Board of Directors may collect written opinions from its members to pass resolutions on matters within its authority as specified in Clause 2, Article 26 of this Charter.
- Resolutions adopted by written opinion shall be valid if approved by a majority of members entitled to vote and shall have the same validity as those adopted at meetings.
15. Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held via teleconference or other electronic means, provided that all participating members can:
- a. Hear each other speaking during the meeting;
 - b. Speak simultaneously with all other participants.
- Discussions may be conducted directly by telephone or other communication means or a combination thereof. Members participating in such meetings are deemed present. The meeting location shall be where the largest number of members are present, or where the Chairperson is located. Decisions adopted through such meetings are valid immediately upon conclusion but must be confirmed by signatures of all attending members in the minutes.
16. Minutes of Board meetings shall be prepared in Vietnamese and may also be prepared in English. The minutes must be signed by the Chairperson, all attending Board members, and the minute-taker. The Chairman is responsible for sending the minutes to all Board members, and such minutes serve as authentic evidence of the proceedings of the meeting.

Article 30. Committees and Subcommittees under the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors may establish subcommittees or committees to be responsible for development policy, personnel, remuneration, internal audit, and risk management. The number of members of each subcommittee or committee shall be decided by the Board of Directors, with a minimum of two (02) members, including members of the Board of Directors and external members (the Audit Committee must consist of Board members). Independent Board members/non-executive Board members should constitute the majority of such subcommittees or committees, and one of them shall be appointed as the Head of the subcommittee or Chairman of the committee as decided by the Board of Directors. The operations of subcommittees and committees must comply with the regulations of the Board of Directors. Resolutions of subcommittees or committees shall be valid only when approved by a majority of members attending and voting at the meeting.
2. The implementation of decisions of the Board of Directors or its subcommittees/committees must comply with applicable laws and the provisions of the Company's Charter and internal corporate governance regulations.

Article 31. Person in Charge of Corporate Governance

1. The Board of Directors must appoint at least one (01) person in charge of corporate governance to support the Company's governance activities. This person may concurrently serve as the Company Secretary in accordance with Clause 5, Article 156 of the Law on Enterprises.
2. The person in charge of corporate governance must not simultaneously work for an approved auditing firm that is auditing the Company's financial statements.
3. The person in charge of corporate governance has the following rights and obligations:
 - a. To advise the Board of Directors on organizing General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with regulations and on matters relating to the relationship between the Company and its shareholders;

 - g. To supervise and report to the Board of Directors on the Company's information disclosure activities;
 - h. To act as a focal point for communication with relevant stakeholders;

- i. To maintain confidentiality of information in accordance with the law and the Company's Charter;
- j. Other rights and obligations as prescribed by law and this Charter.

Article 32. Company Secretary

Where deemed necessary, the Board of Directors shall decide to appoint a Company Secretary with a term determined by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may dismiss the Company Secretary when necessary, provided that such dismissal is not contrary to applicable labor laws. The Company Secretary shall have the following rights and obligations:

1. To assist in organizing the convening of meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors; and to record meeting minutes;
2. To support members of the Board of Directors in performing their assigned rights and obligations;
3. To assist the Board of Directors in applying and implementing corporate governance principles;
4. To assist the Company in building shareholder relations and protecting the lawful rights and interests of shareholders; ensuring compliance with obligations on information provision, disclosure, and administrative procedures;
5. Other rights and obligations as stipulated in the Company's Charter and internal regulations.

CHAPTER VIII. GENERAL DIRECTOR AND OTHER EXECUTIVES

Article 33. Organizational structure

1. The Company shall have a General Director, Deputy General Directors, a Chief Accountant, and other key executives appointed by the Board of Directors.
2. The General Director shall be responsible to the Board of Directors for establishing the management system and organizational structure to ensure the effective operation of the Company.

Article 34. Company executives

1. Company executives include the General Director, Deputy General Directors, Chief Accountant, and other executives.
2. Upon the proposal of the General Director and with the approval of the Board of Directors, the Company may recruit other executives in numbers and with qualifications appropriate to the Company's structure and management regulations as prescribed by the Board of Directors. Executives must be responsible for supporting the Company in achieving its operational and organizational objectives.
3. The General Director shall receive salary and bonuses, as determined by the Board of Directors.
4. Salaries of executives shall be recorded as operating expenses of the Company in accordance with the law on corporate income tax, presented as a separate item in the Company's annual financial statements, and reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.

Article 35. Appointment, dismissal, rights and obligations of the General Director

1. The Board of Directors shall appoint one of its members or hire another person to serve as General Director.
2. The General Director is responsible for the day-to-day management of the Company's business operations; is subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors; and is accountable to the Board of Directors and before the law for the performance of assigned rights and obligations.
3. The term of office of the General Director shall not exceed five (05) years and may be reappointed for an unlimited number of terms. The General Director must meet the qualifications and conditions prescribed by law and the Company's Charter.
4. The General Director has the following rights and obligations:
 - a. To decide on matters relating to the Company's day-to-day business operations that are not within the authority of the Board of Directors;
 - b. To organize the implementation of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;
 - c. To organize the implementation of the Company's business plans and investment plans;
 - d. To propose organizational structure plans and internal management regulations of the Company;
 - e. To appoint, dismiss, and remove managers within the Company, except for positions under the authority of the Board of Directors;
 - f. To decide on salaries and other benefits for employees, including managers under the General Director's appointment authority;
 - g. To recruit employees;
 - h. To propose dividend payment plans or measures for handling business losses;
 - i. ~~Other rights and obligations as prescribed by law, [the Company's Charter, and resolutions or decisions of the Board of Directors].~~
5. The Board of Directors may dismiss the General Director upon approval by a majority of voting members attending the meeting and appoint a new General Director as replacement.

CHAPTER IX. AUDIT COMMITTEE

Article 36. Audit Committee

1. Organizational structure of the Audit Committee:

The Audit Committee shall have at least two (02) members. The Chairman of the Audit Committee must be an independent member of the Board of Directors, and the other members must be non-executive members of the Board of Directors.

Specific provisions regarding the organizational structure of the Audit Committee and the qualifications of its members shall be detailed in the Corporate Governance Regulations and the Operating Regulations of the Audit Committee.

2. The Audit Committee has the following rights and obligations:
 - a. Upon request of a shareholder or a group of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 11 of this Charter, conduct an inspection within seven (07) working days from the date of receipt of the request. Within fifteen (15) working days from the completion of the inspection, the Audit Committee must report and explain the matters requested for inspection to the Board of Directors and the requesting shareholder(s). Such inspections must not interfere with the normal operations of the Board of Directors or disrupt the Company's business activities;
 - b. Develop a mechanism to receive feedback and complaints from employees regarding violations or shortcomings in management, business operations, risk management, and internal control.
