QUARTER I FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the fiscal year ending December 31, 2026

2. Statement of the compliance with the Accounting Standards and System

The Board of Management ensures to follow all the requirements of the Vietnamese Accounting Standards and System, which were issued together with the Circular No. 99/2025/TT-BTC dated October 27, 2025 as well as other Circulars guiding the implementation of Vietnamese Accounting Standards of the Ministry of Finance in the preparation and presentation of the Financial Statements.

IV. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Accounting convention

The Financial Statements are prepared on the accrual basis (except for the information related to cash flows).

2. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash includes cash on hand and demand deposits in banks. Cash equivalents are short-term investments of which the due dates cannot exceed 3 months from the dates of the investments and the convertibility into cash is easy, and which do not have a lot of risks in the conversion into cash as of the balance sheet date.

3. Financial investments

Trading Securities

Investments are classified as trading securities when held for the purpose of trading for profit.

Trading securities are recorded at historical cost. The cost of trading securities is determined by the fair value of the consideration paid at the transaction date plus any costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the trading securities.

The recognition date of trading securities is the date the Company obtains ownership, specifically as follows:

- For listed securities: recognized at the order matching date (T+0).
- For unlisted securities: recognized at the date of official ownership as prescribed by law.

Interest, dividends and profits of the periods prior to the purchase of trading securities are recorded as a decrease in value of those securities. Interest, dividends and profits of the periods after the purchase of trading securities are recognized as revenue. The dividends paid in form of shares are not recorded as an increase in values, but the increasing quantity is followed up.

Converted shares are determined at fair value on the date of exchange. The fair value of shares is determined as follows:

- For listed company shares, the fair value is the closing price listed on the stock market on the exchange date. If the stock market is not trading on the exchange date, the fair value is the closing price of the last trading session immediately preceding the exchange date.

SAIGON CO.OP INVESTMENT DEVELOPMENT JOINT STOCK COMPANY

- For unlisted shares traded on the UPCOM, the fair value is the closing trading price on UPCOM on the exchange date. If UPCOM is not trading on the exchange date, the fair value is the closing price of the last trading session immediately preceding the exchange date.

For other unlisted shares, the fair value is the price agreed upon by the parties in the contract or the book value at the time of exchange.

Provisions for impairment of trading securities is made for each type of security bought and sold on the market and whose fair value is lower than its cost. The fair value of trading securities listed on the stock market or traded on UPCOM is the closing price at the end of the quarter. If the stock market or UPCOM is not trading at the end of the quarter, the fair value of the securities is the closing price of the last trading session immediately preceding the end of the quarter.

Increases or decreases in the provisions for impairment of trading securities that need to be recorded at the end of the quarter are recognized in finance expenses.

Profit or loss from the transfer of trading securities is recognized in financial income or finance expenses. Cost is determined using the weighted-average method.

Held-to-maturity investments

Investments are classified as held-to-maturity investments that the Company intends and is able to hold to maturity. Held-to-maturity investments of the Company are term deposits.

Held-to-maturity investments are initially recognized at historical cost. After initial recognition, these investments are recorded at recoverable value. Interest from these held-to-maturity investments after acquisition date is recognized in the Income Statement on the basis of the interest income to be received. Interests arising prior to the Company's acquisition of held-to-maturity investments are recorded as a decrease in the costs as at the acquisition time.

When there are reliable evidences proving that a part or the whole investment cannot be recovered and the loss is reliably determined, the loss is recognized as financial expenses during the year while the investment value is directly deducted.

Loans

Loans are measured at costs less allowance for doubtful debts. Allowance for doubtful debts of loans is made on the basis of estimated losses.

Investments in subsidiaries, associatesSubsidiaries

Subsidiary is an entity that is controlled by the Company. Control is the Company's power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

Address: 199-205 Nguyen Thai Hoc Street, Ben Thanh Ward, Ho Chi Minh City

For the fiscal year ending December 31, 2026

Associates

An associate is an entity which the Company has significant influence but not the control to govern the financial and operating policies. Significant influence is the right to participate in making the associate's financial and operating policies but not control those policies.

Initial recognition

Investments in subsidiaries, associates are initially recognized at costs, including the cost of purchase or capital contributions plus other directly attributable transaction cost. In case of investment in non-monetary assets, the costs of the investment are recognized at the fair value of non-monetary assets at the arising time. Dividends and profits of the periods prior to the purchase of investments are recorded as a decrease in value of such investments. Dividends and profit of the periods after the purchase of investments are recorded into the Company's revenues. Particularly, the dividends paid in form of shares are not recorded as an increase in values, but the increasing quantity is followed up.

Provisions for impairment of investments in subsidiaries, associates

Provisions for impairment of investments in subsidiaries, associates are made when the subsidiaries, associates suffer from losses at the rate equal to the difference between the actual capital contribution of investors in subsidiaries, associates and the actual owner's equity multiplying (x) by the Company's ownership rate in the total actual capital contribution of investors in subsidiaries, associates. If the subsidiaries, associates are consolidated into Consolidated Financial Statements, the basis for impairment provisions is the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Increases/decreases in the provisions for impairment of investments in subsidiaries, associates as of the end of the quarter are recorded into financial expenses.

4. Receivables

Receivables are recognized at the carrying amounts less allowances for doubtful debts.

The classification of receivables as trade receivables and other receivables is made according the following principles:

- Trade receivables reflect receivables concerning the commercial nature arising from purchase and sale transactions between the Company and customers who are independent to the Company, including receivables from the sale of exported goods on behalf of other entities.
- Other receivables reflect receivables not concerning the commercial nature and irrelevant to purchase and sale transactions.

Allowance is made for each doubtful debt on the basis of the estimated loss.

Increases/decreases in the obligatory allowance for doubtful debts as of the end of the quarter are recorded into general and administration expenses.

5. Prepaid expenses

Prepaid expenses comprise actual expenses incurred and relevant to financial performance in several accounting periods. The prepaid expenses of the Company include the following expenses:

Expenses of tools

Expenses of tools being put into use are allocated into expenses in accordance with the straight-line method for the maximum period of 03 years.

Repair expenses

One-time office repair expenses with significant value are allocated into expenses within the year in accordance with the straight-line method for the maximum period of 03 years.

Cloud server service expenses:

Cloud server service expenses being put into use are allocated into expenses in accordance with the straight-line method over the allocation period under the service provision contract

Renovation and office relocation expenses

Renovation expenses are allocated into expenses in accordance with the straight-line method for the maximum period of the lease term.

6. Operating leased assets

A lease is classified as an operating lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incident to ownership belonging to the lessor. The lease expenses are allocated in the Company's operation costs in accordance with the straight-line method over the lease term and do not depend on the method of lease payment.

7. Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are determined by their historical costs less accumulated depreciation. Historical costs of tangible fixed assets include all the expenses paid by the Company to bring the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Other expenses arising subsequent to initial recognition are included into historical costs of fixed assets only if it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditure has resulted in future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of these assets. Those which do not meet the above conditions will be recorded into operation costs during the period.

When a tangible fixed asset is sold or disposed, its historical cost and accumulated depreciation are written off, then any gain or loss arising from such disposal is included in the income or the expenses during the period.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated in accordance with the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. The depreciation years applied are as follows:

Fixed assets	Years
Machinery and equipment	03 - 08
Vehicles	10
Office equipment	05 - 08

8. Investment properties

Investment property refers to land use rights, buildings, parts of buildings, or infrastructure owned by the Company, which are held for the purpose of earning rental income or capital appreciation. Investment properties for lease are measured at their historical costs less accumulated depreciation. Historical cost includes all the expenses paid by the Company or the fair value of other considerations given to acquire the assets up to the date of its acquisition or construction.

Expenses related to investment property arising subsequent to initial recognition should be added to the historical cost of the investment property when it is probable that future economic benefits, in excess of the originally assessed standard of performance of the existing investment property, will flow to the Company. When the investment property is sold or disposed, its historical cost and accumulated depreciation are written off, then any gain or loss arising from such disposals is included in the income or the expenses during the period.

The transfer from owner-occupied property or inventories into investment property shall be made when, and only when, there is a change in use evidenced by the end of owner-occupation and the commencement of an operating lease to another party or the end of construction. The transfer from investment property to owner-occupied property or inventories shall be made when, and only when, there is a change in use evidenced by the commencement of owner-occupation or the commencement of development with a view to sale. The transfer from investment property to owner-occupied property or inventories does not change the historical cost or net book value of investment property at the date of transfer.

Investment property for lease is depreciated in accordance with the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. The depreciation year for investment property is as follows:

Fixed assets	Years
Land use right	39
Building	25 - 30

Investment property held for capital appreciation is not subject to depreciation. If there is conclusive evidence that the investment property held for capital appreciation has decreased in value compared to its market value, and the impairment is reliably determined, the investment property is recorded as a decrease in the costs, and the loss is recognized as part of the cost of goods sold.

For the fiscal year ending December 31, 2026

9. Intangible fixed assets

Intangible fixed assets are determined by their initial costs less accumulated amortization.

Initial costs of intangible fixed assets include all the costs paid by the Company to bring the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Other costs relevant to intangible fixed assets arising subsequent to initial recognition are included into operation costs during the period only if these costs are associated with a specific intangible fixed asset and result in future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of these assets.

When an intangible fixed asset is sold or disposed, its Initial costs and accumulated amortization are written off, then any gain or loss arising from such disposal is included in the income or the expenses during the period.

The Company's intangible fixed assets include:

Computer software

Expenses attributable to computer software, which is not a part associated with the relevant hardware, will be capitalized. Costs of computer software include all the expenses paid by the Company until the date the software is put into use. Computer software is amortized in accordance with the straight-line method within 3 years.

Company Website

The initial cost of the Company website includes all the costs paid by the Company to bring the website to its working condition for its intended use. The Company website is amortized in accordance with the straight-line method within 3 years.

10. Construction-in-progress

Construction-in-progress reflects the expenses (including relevant interest expenses following the accounting policies of the Company) directly attributable to assets under construction, machinery and equipment under installation for purposes of leasing and management as well as the repair of fixed assets in progress. These assets are recorded at historical costs and not depreciated.

11. Payables and accrued expenses

Payables and accrued expenses are recorded for the amounts payable in the future associated with the goods and services received. Accrued expenses are recorded based on reasonable estimates for the amounts payable.

SAIGON CO.OP INVESTMENT DEVELOPMENT JOINT STOCK COMPANY

Address: 199-205 Nguyen Thai Hoc Street, Ben Thanh Ward, Ho Chi Minh City

QUARTER I FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the fiscal year ending December 31, 2026

The classification of payables as trade payables, accrued expenses and other payables is made on the basis of following principles:

- Trade payables reflect payables of commercial nature arising from the purchase of goods, services, or assets and the seller, of which the seller is an independent entity with the Company, including payables arising from imports through the consignee.
- Accrued expenses reflect expenses for goods, services received from suppliers or supplied to customers but have not been paid, invoiced or lack of accounting records and supporting documents; pay on leave payable to employees; and accrual of operation expenses.
- Other payables reflect payables of non-commercial nature and irrelevant to purchase, sales of goods or provisions of services.

The payables and accrued expenses are classified as short-term and long-term items in the Balance Sheet on the basis of their remaining term as of the end of the quarter.

12. Owner's equity

Capital is recorded according to the actual amounts invested by shareholders.

13. Profit distribution

Profit after tax is distributed to the shareholders after appropriation for funds under the Company Charter as well as legal regulations and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The distribution of profits to the shareholders is made with consideration toward non-cash items in the retained earnings that may affect cash flows and payment of profit such as profit due to revaluation of assets contributed as investment capital, profit due to revaluation of monetary items, financial instruments and other non-cash items.

Dividends are recorded as payables upon approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

14. Recognition of revenue and incomeRevenue from service provision

Revenue from service provision shall be recognized when all of the following conditions are satisfied:

- The amount of revenue can be measured reliably. When the contract stipulates that the buyer is entitled to return the services provided under specific conditions, revenue is recognized only when these specific conditions are no longer existed and the buyer is not entitled to return the services provided.
- The Company received or shall probably receive the economic benefits associated with the provision of services.
- The stage of completion of the transaction at the end of reporting period can be measured reliably.
- The costs incurred for the transaction and the costs to complete the transaction can be measured reliably.

QUARTER I FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In the case that the services are provided in several accounting periods, the determination of sales is done on the basis of the volume of work done as of the balance sheet date.

Revenue from leasing operating assets

Revenue from leasing operating assets is recognized in accordance with the straight-line method during the lease term. Rentals received in advance for several periods are allocated to revenue in consistence with the lease term.

Interest

Interest is recorded, based on the term and the actual interest rate applied in each particular period.

Dividends and profit shared

Dividends and profit shared are recognized when the Company has the right to receive dividends or profit from the capital contribution. The dividends paid in form of shares are not recorded as an increase in values, but the increasing quantity is followed up.

15. Expenses

Expenses are those that result in outflows of the economic benefits and are recorded at the time of transactions or when incurrence of the transaction is reliable regardless of whether payment for expenses is made or not.

Expenses and their corresponding revenues are simultaneously recognized in accordance with matching principle. In the event that matching principle conflicts with prudence principle, expenses are recognized based on the nature and regulations of accounting standards in order to guarantee that transactions can be fairly and truly reflected.

16. Corporate income tax

Corporate income tax includes current income tax and deferred income tax.

Current income tax

Current income tax is the tax amount computed based on the taxable income. Taxable income is different from accounting profit due to the adjustments of temporary differences between tax and accounting figures, non-deductible expenses as well as those of non-taxable income and losses brought forward.

Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is the amount of corporate income tax payable or refundable due to temporary differences between book values of assets and liabilities serving the preparation of the Financial Statements and the values for tax purposes. Deferred income tax liabilities are recognized for all the temporary taxable differences. Deferred income tax assets are recorded only when there is an assurance on the availability of taxable income in the future against which the temporarily deductible differences can be used.

Carrying values of deferred corporate income tax assets are considered as of the balance sheet date and will be reduced to the rate that ensures enough taxable income against which the benefits from part of or all of the deferred income tax can be used. Deferred corporate income tax assets, which have not been recorded before, are considered as of the balance sheet date and are recorded when there is certainly enough taxable income to use these unrecognized deferred corporate income tax assets.

Deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are determined at the estimated tax rate to be applied in the year when the assets are recovered or the liabilities are settled based on the effective tax rates at the end of the fiscal year. Deferred income tax is recognized in the Income Statement. In the case that deferred income tax is related to the items of the owner's equity, corporate income tax will be included in the owner's equity.

The Company shall offset deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities if:

- The Company has the legal right to offset current income tax assets against current income tax liabilities; and
- Deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are relevant to corporate income tax which is under the management of one tax authority either:
 - Of the same subject to corporate income tax; or
 - The Company has intention to pay current income tax liabilities and current income tax assets on a net basis or recover tax assets and settle tax liability simultaneously in each future period to the extent that the majority of deferred income tax liabilities or deferred income tax assets are paid or recovered.

17. Related parties

A party is considered a related party of the Company in case that party is able to control the other party or to cause material effects on the financial decisions as well as the operations of the other party. A party is also considered a related party of the Company in case that party is under the same control or is subject to the same material effects.

Considering the relationship of related parties, the nature of relationship is focused more than its legal form.

18. Segment reporting

A business segment is a distinguishable component of the Company that is engaged in manufacturing or providing products or services and that is subject to risks and returns that are different from those of other business segments.

A geographical segment is a distinguishable component of the Company that is engaged in manufacturing or providing products or services within a particular economic environment and that is subject to risks and returns that are different from those of components operating in other economic environments.

The segment information is prepared and presented in conformity with the accounting policies applicable to the preparation and presentation of the Financial Statements of the Company.

19. Financial instrumentsFinancial assets

The classification of these financial assets depends on their nature and purpose and is determined at initial recognition. The Company's financial assets include cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, other receivables, loans, and unlisted financial instruments.

At initial recognition, financial assets are recognized at cost plus transaction costs directly attributable to the financial asset.

Financial liabilities

The classification of financial liabilities depends on their nature and purpose and is determined at initial recognition. The Company's financial liabilities include trade payables and other payables.

At initial recognition, financial liabilities are recognized at cost less transaction costs directly attributable to the financial liability.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is a contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all its liabilities.

Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and presented net value in the Balance Sheet if, and only if, the Company:

- Has a legally enforceable right to offset the recognized amounts; and
- Intends to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.
