1.8. Statement regarding the comparability of information in financial statements.

The accounting policies applied during this period are consistent with those of the previous period. The figures on the financial statements are presented consistently, ensuring comparability between periods.

1.9. Other information

The entity operates in accordance with current laws and regulations, including the provisions of the 2020 Enterprise Law, the Tax Administration Law, the 2019 Securities Law, and other relevant legal documents.

During the period, the Corporation fully complied with regulations on business registration, information disclosure, and related legal obligations.

The entity has fully fulfilled its obligations to the State Budget as stipulated by current laws.

2. BASIS FOR PREPARING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2.1. Applicable Accounting Standards and Regimes

The accompanying financial statements, expressed in Vietnam Dong (VND), are prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting System and other relevant regulations in Vietnam.

The accompanying consolidated separate financial statements are not intended to present the financial position, results of operations and cash flows in accordance with accounting principles and practices generally accepted in countries other than Vietnam..

2.2. Accounting period

The Corporation's annual accounting period is from January 1 to December 31; the first fiscal year of the Corporation operating as a Joint Stock Company starts on April 17, 2015 and ends on December 31, 2015.

2.3. Accounting currency

The currency used in accounting records is VND.

2.4. Basis of consolidation

Consolidated financial statements are the financial statements of the Corporation in which the assets, liabilities, equity, revenues, expenses and cash flows of the parent company and its subsidiaries are presented as those of a single enterprise without regard to the legal boundaries of the separate companies. The financial statements of the subsidiaries have been prepared for the same financial year as the parent company, using accounting policies consistent with those of the parent company. Adjustments have been made to any accounting policies that are different to ensure consistency between the subsidiaries and the parent company.

Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date of acquisition, which is the date on which the Corporation obtains control of the subsidiary, and continue to be consolidated until the date on which the Corporation ceases to control the subsidiary, except where the Corporation's control is temporary when the subsidiary is acquired and held solely with a view to resale for a period not exceeding 12 months.

Method of recognition of non-controlling interests.

Non-controlling interests in the net income and net assets of a subsidiary are presented separately in the consolidated income statement and consolidated balance sheet.

Losses arising in a subsidiary are allocated in proportion to the non-controlling interest, even if such losses exceed the non-controlling interest in the net assets of the subsidiary..

Intra-group transaction elimination method

All intra-group balances and transactions, including unrealized profits arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated in full on consolidation. Unrealized losses are also eliminated in the consolidated financial statements, unless the costs causing the loss are irrecoverable.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES APPLIED

3.1. Foreign currency

Types of exchange rates applied in accounting:

- The exchange rate used for recording transactions denominated in foreign currency (Assets, Accounts Receivable, Accounts Payable, Revenue, Expenses) and for revaluing the balances of all monetary items denominated in foreign currency is the average actual buying and selling exchange rate of the commercial bank where transactions are regularly conducted.

- The exchange rate used for recording transactions that reduce monetary items is the specific actual exchange rate.

- The Corporation uses the average buying and selling exchange rate of the commercial bank where the demand deposit account is opened to value the balances of demand deposits in foreign currency.

Transactions denominated in foreign currency are accounted for at the actual exchange rate on the date the transaction occurs. Exchange rate differences arising during the payment process are recorded in the income statement for the period. The balances of cash, accounts receivable, and accounts payable denominated in foreign currency, excluding balances of prepayments to suppliers in foreign currency, balances of deferred expenses in foreign currency, and balances of unearned revenue in foreign currency, are converted to the accounting currency at the actual exchange rate on the date the financial statement is prepared..

3.2. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, bank deposits, cash in transit, short-term investments with a maturity of no more than 3 months from the date of investment, highly liquid, easily convertible into a known amount of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of change in value at the reporting date. Cash equivalents are determined in accordance with Accounting Standard No. 24 - Cash Flow Statement.

3.3. Financial investment

Trading Securities

Trading securities are securities and other financial instruments held for trading purposes (held with the intention of waiting for price increase to sell for profit) at the reporting date.

Trading securities are recorded at cost. The cost of trading securities includes the purchase price and purchase costs such as brokerage, transaction, information provision, taxes, fees and bank charges. The cost of trading securities is determined based on the fair value of the payments at the time the transaction occurs.

Held-to-maturity investments

Investments held to maturity include term deposits, bonds, preference shares that the issuer must redeem at a certain time in the future, loans held to maturity for the purpose of earning periodic interest, and other investments held to maturity.

When there is strong evidence that part or all of an investment may not be recovered, the loss is recorded as financial expense in the year.

Loans are recorded at cost.

Capital investments in other entities

Investments in associates

An investment is classified as an investment in an associate when the Corporation directly or indirectly holds from 20% to less than 50% of the voting rights of the investee without any other agreement.

Investments in associates are accounted for under the equity method. Under the equity method, an investment in an associate is initially recorded at cost. In the case of investments in non-monetary assets, the cost of the investments is recorded at the fair value of the non-monetary assets at the time of acquisition. The value of the investment is then adjusted up or down corresponding to the Corporation's share of the profit or loss of the associate after the acquisition date.

Distributions from an associate after the acquisition date are recorded as a reduction in the value of the investment.

Investment in a joint venture

An investment is classified as an investment in a joint venture when the Group has joint control over the financial and operating policies of the investee.

Distributions from a joint venture after the acquisition date are deducted from the value of the investment.

Other investments

Investments classified as other investments are investments other than investments in subsidiaries, investments in joint ventures, and investments in associates.

Other investments are stated at cost, including purchase price and directly attributable costs (if any). In the case of investments in non-monetary assets, the cost of the investments is recorded at the fair value of the non-monetary assets at the time of acquisition.

Method of making provision for other investment losses

Provisions for impairment of investments are established when there is conclusive evidence that the value of these investments will decrease by the end of the financial year.

Increases or decreases in the provision balance are accounted for as financial expenses in the consolidated separate income statement.

3.4. Receivables

Recognition principle

Receivables are presented at the carrying amount of receivables from customers and other receivables after deducting provisions made for doubtful receivables.

Provision for doubtful receivables principle

At the time of preparing the consolidated separate financial statements, provisions for doubtful receivables are established for accounts receivable that are overdue and accounts receivable that are not yet due but are likely to be uncollectible, with the provision level in accordance with current regulations. The determination of the overdue period for accounts receivable deemed doubtful and requiring provision is based on the principal repayment period according to the original purchase and sale contract, excluding any debt extensions between the parties.

Increases or decreases in the balance of the provision for doubtful receivables account are accounted for as administrative expenses in the consolidated separate income statement.

3.5. Inventories

Principles of inventory recognition

Inventories are determined on the basis of the lower of cost and net realizable value.

The cost of inventories includes the cost of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. In the case of manufactured products, cost includes all direct materials, direct labor and production overheads based on the normal operating situation.

The cost of purchase of inventories includes the purchase price, non-refundable taxes, transportation, handling, storage during the purchase process and other costs directly attributable to the purchase of inventories. Trade discounts and purchase rebates due to goods purchased that are not of the correct specifications or quality are deducted (-) from the cost of purchase.

Net realizable value is determined as the estimated selling price less the estimated costs of completing the product and the costs to be incurred in marketing, selling and distribution..

Method of determining the value of inventories

The original cost of inventories is determined by the first in first out method and is accounted for using the regular declaration method.

Method of establishing inventory price reduction provisions

As of the date of the consolidated separate financial statements, provisions for inventory devaluation are made for damaged, substandard, obsolete, slow-moving inventory, and inventory whose book value is higher than its net realizable value.

The increase or decrease in the inventory devaluation provision is accounted for in the cost of goods sold on the consolidated separate income statement.

The inventory devaluation provision is made on an item-by-item basis. For work-in-progress services, the provision is calculated for each service with its own price.

3.6. Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation.

Principles of recognition and determination of initial value

The cost of tangible fixed assets includes the purchase price and all costs directly related to bringing the asset into a state of readiness for use. In case of purchasing fixed assets with additional equipment and spare parts, the equipment and spare parts are determined and recorded separately at their fair value and deducted (-) from the cost of tangible fixed assets.

Depreciation method

The cost of tangible fixed assets is depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the asset.

The estimated depreciation periods for some groups of assets are as follows:

▪ Building and structures	05 – 40 year
▪ Machinery and equipment	03 – 13 year
▪ Motor vehicles and conveyances	05 – 10 year
▪ Management equipment	03 – 10 year

3.7. Intangible fixed assets

Intangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation.

The cost of intangible fixed assets includes all costs incurred by the Corporation to acquire intangible fixed assets up to the time the asset is ready for use.

The Corporation's intangible fixed assets include:

Land use rights

The Corporation's land use rights include the value of the land use rights at Lot C2, Song Than 2 Industrial Park and other land lots belonging to Hanoi Seafood Import-Export JSC and Nam Can Seafood Import-Export JSC.

Land use rights are depreciated using the straight-line method over 32.5 years to 50 years, land use rights with indefinite duration are not depreciated.

Computer software

Computer software that is not an integral part of hardware is recorded as an intangible fixed asset and is depreciated over its useful life.

3.8. Construction in progress

Assets under construction for production, rental, administrative purposes or for any other purpose are stated at cost. These costs include service costs and related interest costs and are accounted for in accordance with the Group's accounting policy. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

3.9. Prepaid expenses

Prepaid expenses are classified as short-term prepaid expenses and long-term prepaid expenses based on the original term and are mainly expenses related to the cost of tools, equipment and prepaid land rental, etc. These amounts are allocated over the prepaid period of the expense or over the period in which economic benefits are expected to be generated.

3.10. Liabilities

Liabilities are classified as trade payables and other payables according to the following principles: Trade payables are commercial payables arising from transactions of purchasing and selling goods, services, assets and the seller is an independent entity from the buyer; The remaining payables are classified as other payables.

Liabilities are monitored by original maturity, remaining maturity at the reporting date, by original currency and by each entity.

Liabilities are recorded at no less than the payment obligation.

3.11. Borrowing cost

Borrowing Cost Capitalization Principle

Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale are capitalized as part of the cost of those assets until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

Income from the temporary investment of borrowings is deducted from the cost of the relevant assets.

All other borrowing costs are recognized in the income statement when incurred.

3.12. Payable expenses

Accrued expenses are recognized as future liabilities related to assets, goods, services, etc., received from sellers during the reporting period but not yet paid due to the lack of invoices or insufficient accounting documentation. These expenses are recorded as production and business expenses for the reporting period.

3.13. Unearned revenue

Unearned revenue includes revenue received in advance from customers for one or more accounting periods for leasing assets.

Periodically, calculate, determine and transfer unrealized revenue to revenue in accordance with the asset lease period.

3.14. Equity capital

Owner's capital

Owner's capital is recorded at the actual capital contributed by the owner.

Other capital of owners

Other capital is formed by supplementing from business results, revaluation of assets and the remaining value between the fair value of donated, donated, and sponsored assets after deducting taxes payable (if any) related to these assets.

Treasury shares

Treasury shares are recorded at purchase price and presented as a reduction in equity on the consolidated balance sheet.

Revaluation difference

Revaluation difference reflects the difference due to revaluation of investments in subsidiaries arising during the revaluation of assets serving the equitization of the Corporation.

Dividends

Dividends are recognized as a payment due on the date the Corporation has no right to refuse its obligation to pay dividends and profits to shareholders.

Profit Distribution

Net profit after corporate income tax may be distributed to shareholders and allocated to funds in accordance with the Shareholders' Meeting Resolution, the Company's Charter, and the provisions of Vietnamese law.

3.15. Revenue, other income

Sales revenue

Sales revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. In most cases, revenue is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer.

Revenue from rendering of services

Revenue from rendering of services is recognised when the outcome of the transaction can be measured reliably. Where a service transaction involves several periods, revenue is recognised in the period based on the percentage of completion of the work at the consolidated balance sheet date of that period.

Interest on deposits

Interest on deposits is recognised on an accrual basis, determined based on the balance of deposit accounts and the applicable interest rate.

Liquidation and sale of fixed assets

Income from liquidation and sale of fixed assets and investment real estate is the difference between the proceeds from liquidation and sale of fixed assets and investment real estate higher than the remaining value of fixed assets and investment real estate and liquidation costs.

Investment income

Interest from investments is recognized when the Company has the right to receive the interest

3.16. Revenue deductions

Revenue deductions include: trade discounts, sales price reductions, and returned goods.

Revenue deductions arising in the same period as the sale of products, goods, and services are adjusted downwards from the revenue of the period in which they arise; Revenue deductions arising in a subsequent period but before the issuance of the financial statements are adjusted downwards from the revenue of the reporting period; Revenue deductions arising in a subsequent period and after the issuance of the financial statements are adjusted downwards from the revenue of the period in which the deduction arises..

3.17. Cost of goods sold

Cost of goods sold and services provided is the total cost incurred for finished goods, merchandise, and services sold during the period, based on the matching principle with revenue. Any costs exceeding the normal inventory level are immediately recognized as cost of goods sold.

3.18. Financial expense

Financial expenses reflect costs incurred during the period, primarily including losses from selling foreign currency, exchange rate losses, provisions for impairment of trading securities, and investment losses.

3.19. Selling expenses and business management expenses

Cost of goods sold reflects the actual costs incurred during the sales process, including management staff costs, costs of purchasing tools and equipment, depreciation costs of fixed assets, and other expenses.

Business management expenses reflect general management costs of the enterprise, including costs of salaries for employees in the business management department (salaries, wages, allowances, etc.); social insurance, health insurance, union fees, unemployment insurance for business management staff; costs of office materials, labor tools, depreciation of fixed assets used for business management; land rent, business license tax; provision for bad debts; outsourced services (electricity, water, telephone, fax, property insurance, fire and explosion insurance, etc.); other cash expenses.

3.20. Taxation

Corporate Income Tax

Current Corporate Income Tax (CIT) Expense

Current CIT expense is determined based on taxable income and the current CIT rate of 20%.

Deferred CIT Expense

Deferred CIT expense is determined based on deductible temporary differences, taxable temporary differences, and the CIT rate expected to apply in the year the asset is recovered or the liability is settled, based on the tax rates (and tax laws) in effect at the end of the financial year.

Deferred income tax payable must be recognized for all taxable temporary differences, except for:

- Deferred income tax payable arising from the initial recognition of an asset or liability from a transaction that does not affect accounting profit or taxable income (or tax loss) at the time the transaction occurs;
- Temporary taxable differences related to investments in subsidiaries, branches, associates, and joint ventures are recognized when the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controllable and it is certain that the temporary difference will not be reversed in the foreseeable future.

Deferred income tax assets are recognized for all deductible temporary differences, the carry-forward value of taxable losses, and unused tax credits when it is certain that taxable profits will be available in the future to utilize these deductible temporary differences, taxable losses, and unused tax credits, except for:

- Deferred tax assets arising from the initial recognition of an asset or liability from a transaction that does not affect accounting profit or taxable income (taxable loss) at the time of the transaction.
- Deferred tax assets for all deductible temporary differences arising from investments in subsidiaries, affiliates, associates, and joint ventures are recognized only when it is certain that the temporary difference will be reversed in a foreseeable future and that there is taxable profit to utilize that temporary difference.

The carrying value of deferred corporate income tax assets is reviewed at the end of the accounting period and reduced to the extent that it is certain there is sufficient taxable profit to allow the use of part or all of the deferred income tax asset. Previously unrecognized deferred corporate income tax assets are reviewed at the end of the accounting period and recognized when it is certain there is sufficient taxable profit to utilize those previously unrecognized deferred income tax assets.

Current income tax and deferred income tax are recognized as income or expense for the purpose of calculating profit or loss for the period in which they arise, except where income tax arising from a transaction or event is recognized directly in equity in the same period or a different period.

The Corporation may only offset deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities when the Corporation has a legal right to offset current income tax assets against current income tax payable and deferred income tax assets against deferred income tax liabilities relating to corporate income tax administered by the same tax authority, and the Corporation intends to settle current income tax liabilities and current income tax assets on a net basis or by recovering the assets concurrently with the settlement of liabilities in each future period when material amounts of deferred income tax liabilities or deferred income tax assets are settled or recovered.

Value Added Tax

The value added tax on goods and services provided by the Corporation is calculated according to the following rates:

- A 0% tax rate applies to export activities;
 - A 5% tax rate applies, or no VAT declaration or payment is required for the sale of domestically processed seafood;
 - A 10% tax rate applies to office and premises rental activities;
 - A 10% tax rate applies to other activities. (An 8% tax rate will be applied from January 1, 2025 to December 31, 2025 according to Decree 180/2024/ND-CP dated December 31, 2024 and Decree 174/2025/ND-CP dated June 30, 2025);
- Other activities are subject to the prescribed tax rates.

Other Taxes

Applied in accordance with current tax laws in Vietnam.

The Corporation's tax reports will be subject to audit by the tax authorities. Because the application of tax laws and regulations to various types of transactions can be interpreted in different ways, the tax amounts presented in the consolidated financial statements may change at the final discretion of the tax authorities.

3.21. Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the consolidated profit after tax of the Corporation after deducting the bonus and welfare fund by the average total number of common shares outstanding during the period, excluding shares repurchased by the Corporation and held as treasury shares.

3.22. Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share is calculated by dividing the consolidated profit after tax of the Corporation after deducting the bonus and welfare fund by the average total number of common shares outstanding during the period and the total number of common shares expected to be issued, excluding the number of shares repurchased by the Corporation and held as treasury shares.

3.23. Related parties

Related parties are enterprises and individuals that directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by the Corporation. Associated companies, individuals who directly or indirectly hold voting power of the Corporation that gives them significant influence over the Corporation, key management personnel including directors, executives of the Corporation, close family members of these individuals or companies associated with these individuals are also considered related parties.

(*) Vietnam - Russia Aquatic Products Joint Venture Company (the Joint Venture) has ceased operations and is carrying out procedures to dissolve the Company according to regulations. After receiving compensation for site clearance from the People's Committee of District 2, the Joint Venture has temporarily returned the amount corresponding to the Corporation's capital contribution of VND 4.994.824.935. However, up to now, because the Vietnam-Russia Seafood Joint Venture Company has not completed the dissolution, the Corporation has not yet offset this investment with the amount received from the Joint Venture.

() The Corporation has agreed to use 22.000.000 shares of Vietnamese - French Cattle Feed Joint Stock Company (Proconco) to secure the loan under Loan Contract No. 01/2016/HDVV dated June 23, 2016 with Bac Nam 79 Construction Joint Stock Company (Refer to Note 4.20).

According to Decision No. 1223/QĐ dated September 12, 2025, the Hai Phong City Police initiated a criminal case for "Violation of regulations on food safety" at Ha Long Canned Food Joint Stock Company. On January 10, 2026, the Hai Phong City Police carried out an urgent arrest of the General Director of Ha Long Canned Food Joint Stock Company. As of the date of this Financial Report, Ha Long Canned Food Joint Stock Company has not yet completed its Q1 2026 financial report.

As of the reporting date, the Corporation has determined the fair value of its investments in the following companies based on their listed prices on the stock exchange and the number of shares the Corporation holds:

- Hanoi Seaproducts Import Export Joint Stock Company;
- Nam Can Seaproducts Import Export Joint Stock Company;
- Viet Nam Fishery Mechanical Shipbuilding Joint Stock Company;
- Seaproducts Mechanical Shareholding Joint Stock Company;
- Ha Long Canned Food Joint Stock Corporation;
- Danang Seaproducts Import - Export Corporation;
- Searefco Corporation;
- Special Aquatic Products Joint Stock Company;
- Hung Hau Agriculture Corporation.

For the remaining companies, the Corporation has not yet determined the fair value of these investments to disclose in the consolidated separate financial statements due to the lack of listed market prices and the fact that Vietnamese Accounting Standards and the Vietnamese Enterprise Accounting System currently do not provide guidance on calculating fair value using valuation techniques. The fair value of these investments may differ from their book value.

Raw materials and supplies used for fish farming are allocated according to the following criteria:

- By weight: Raw materials are allocated based on the percentage of fish weight gain during each different stage of farming; this percentage must not exceed the established technical standards.
- Technical standard criterion: Fish weight (kg) x feed coefficient.
- Raw materials and supplies used for product manufacturing are allocated according to the following coefficients:
- Main raw materials: Coefficient = Product processing standard x Quantity of product received into inventory x Purchase price.
- Auxiliary raw materials: Coefficient according to the cost standard table for the year.

The value of inventory showing signs of technical obsolescence, low usability and recovery as of March 31, 2026 is VND 209,422,808. The Corporation is reviewing and assessing the net realizable value to serve as a basis for establishing provisions for inventory devaluation and to develop appropriate handling plans in the future.

The value of inventory used as collateral to secure liabilities as of March 31, 2026 is 0 VND.

As of March 31, 2026, the Corporation had not yet determined the fair value of investment properties held for lease because Vietnamese Accounting Standards and the Vietnamese Enterprise Accounting System currently lack guidance on calculating fair value and valuation techniques. Therefore, the fair value of investment properties has not been presented in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

The fair value of investment properties held for rental may differ from their carrying amount.

The original cost of fully depreciated investment properties that are still in use at period-end is VND 6.790.286.571.

(*) The Corporation borrowed from Bac Nam 79 Construction Joint Stock Company to pay the land use fee for the land plot at 2-4-6 Dong Khoi Street, Saigon Ward, Ho Chi Minh City, under loan agreement No. 01/2016/HDVV dated June 23, 2016, with an interest rate of 7% per year. The outstanding principal amount as of June 13, 2019, was VND 250.000.000.000. This loan was secured by 22.000.000 shares of the Corporation held in Proconco Vietnam-France Animal Feed Production Joint Stock Company.

According to appellate judgment No. 346/2019/HS-PT dated June 13, 2019, the High People's Court of Hanoi issued a decision concerning the rights and interests of the Corporation as follows: "The Vietnam Fisheries Corporation is ordered to pay the amount of VND 250.000.000.000 (principal) and VND 18.403.423.025 (interest) borrowed from Bac Nam 79 Construction Joint Stock Company to the competent civil enforcement agency to ensure the enforcement of the judgment regarding the legal entity's obligations, the defendant Phan Van Anh Vu's responsibilities in this case, and other related transactions."

From February 10, 2023 to December 22, 2023, the Corporation was subject to forced deduction of the entire amount of VND 268.403.423.025 according to the proactive enforcement decision No. 910/QD-CTHADS dated February 27, 2020, to enforce the judgment related to the appellate judgment.

The Corporation sent Official Letter No. 371/TSVN-TCKT dated October 19, 2023, requesting a review of the enforcement process regarding Decision No. 910 to the Hanoi City Enforcement

Department and Enforcement Officer Nguyen Thu Nga for consideration and clarification, as well as other official letters.

In addition to the aforementioned amount of VND 268.403.423.025 that the Corporation was forced to pay, the Corporation has now paid an additional VND 96.196.605.130 in interest to Bac Nam 79 Construction Joint Stock Company. The remaining interest (out of the total interest as of December 21, 2023) that the Corporation has yet to pay is VND 4.014.307.036.

Currently, the Corporation and Bac Nam 79 Construction Joint Stock Company are continuing to work together to resolve issues related to the rights and interests of both parties.

On January 28, 2026, the first-instance judgment No. 7/2026/KDTM-ST of the People's Court of Region 1 - Ho Chi Minh City ruled: dismissing the lawsuit filed by Bac Nam 79 Construction Joint Stock Company regarding: "Compelling Vietnam Fisheries Corporation - Joint Stock Company to pay Bac Nam 79 Construction Joint Stock Company the entire remaining principal debt under Loan Agreement No. 01/2016/HĐVV dated June 23, 2016 and the accompanying appendices including Loan Agreement Appendix No. 01/2017/PLHĐVV dated June 20, 2017, Loan Agreement Appendix No. 02/2017/PLHĐVV dated December 28, 2017, with the amount of VND 250.000.000.000.
